OFFICER REPORTS

Executive VP Nick Shuey: Met with George Clark once again, and tomorrow he will be in budget and finance committee meetings so he can update everyone next Monday.

VP of Clubs and Organizations Philip Rush: Last Tuesday we had the Central Involvement fair, and have a club senate meeting this Wednesday, and he is still working on Bylaws and Constitution amendments.

VP Academic Affairs Jenn Treadway: First SAS meeting tomorrow, at 7pm in Black 151. This quarter will be dedicated to finalizing the four-year course schedules, general requirements appeal process, as well as issues involving the education dept.

VP Equity and Community Affairs Spencer Biallas: Working on the continuity binder and an Ellensburg city clean up with the equity service counsel. Also, working on another food drive for the quarter, also tidying up his office to set up for the rest of the quarter.

VP Student Life and Facilities Rob Lane: ACUI Conference, he brought back some great ideas involving SURC art. Officially contracted SOL, Grynch, and a verbal agreement with Nacho Picasso. The concert date is May 18th at 8 pm.

VP of Legislative Affairs Cassie DuBore: Senator Patty Murray was on campus, and a group of students met with her. Last week she met with publicity to finalize promotions for college civics week. Also, working to plan a day of action for one trillion day, which is the anniversary of student debt hitting one trillion dollars.

President Yosef Gamble: Met with IT Services, representative from admissions, as well as Dr. Champagne and Paula to work on elections and discuss single sign on system is on schedule. A couple students came to talk to Yosef about an elections app, IT is interested in doing this next year, but it is currently not feasible for this year. It was proposed from that meeting that he should draft a letter to the student body to interact with the students, and to show that student government is involved and supportive of elections. These students also proposed a student transit app, which to his knowledge does already exist. He also gave a speech on Wildcat day, and promoted leadership and getting involved to new wildcats, and met with students and parents of incoming students. He has a meeting on Wednesday with Ryan Anderson to discuss the Student Arts Fund to get some questions answered.

Resolution

At the public meeting of the Associated Students of Central Washington University (ASCWU) Student Government on April 13th, 2015, the following resolution was proposed and approved:

WHEREAS, it is the goal of the ASCWU Student Government to promote the financial interests of the students of Central Washington University, and

WHEREAS, the Student Arts Fund proposal intends to support the operation and enhancement of identified Arts programs: Dance, Fine Arts, Film and Video Studies, Music, Theatre Arts, and Creative Writing, and

WHEREAS, the Student Arts Fund establishes a $50 per quarter student fee on all full-time students on the Ellensburg campus, prorated for part-time students, and

WHEREAS, the committee members that oversee Student Arts Fund allocations are appointed by the Dean of the College of Arts & Humanities, which may result in the restriction of involvement for both faculty and students.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that is the sense of this board to oppose the Student Arts Fund Proposal.

Signed this 13th day of April, 2015

Yosef Gamble
ASCWU Student Government President
