5. OFFICER REPORTS

Executive VP Brittany Kinsella – Met with Andre Dickerson for Westside Student government to try to get that going.

I interviewed for the elections coordinator position and got meeting set up with publicity to start fundraising for the veteran memorial.

Are continuing to work together with the board.

VP Clubs and Organizations Alex Horning – “RV There Yet”, March 7th at noon at the SURC patio. We reviewed the guidelines for services and activities fees with Denee and Andre and found we can use part of our budget for a prize. $500 for first, $300 for second and $200 for third place. Must be used under current allocations (travel, registration, etc.), and will have hot chocolate for students.

Working on amending bylaws and increase amounts to $3,000 per club per year.

Club senate next Wed in SURC theatre at 7pm.

VP Academic Affairs Ryan Zimmerman – SAS has made a new committee: Course Scheduling Committee which will look into student cases/issues with scheduling or who cannot get 12 credits towards degree because of times or overlapping classes. Many students have had this problem and we want to gather data and make recommendations to departments, will take cases to provost and deans. Hosting a special SAS meeting for our Seat Audit committee will have food and go over committee.

Last SAS meeting we decided to double allocations for students beginning spring quarter until fall quarter.

SEOI committee drafted a letter that explains importance and link to SEOI.

CAPS+ meeting: received a lot of feedback about system, have questions I submitted to team and are working on getting answers.

Trying to approve new funding packet.

VP Student Life and Facilities: Forrest McNealley – attended RHA set up interviews for Wellington, job is posted.

Went to the facilities and meeting, went over projects.
