CHANGES TO AND APPROVAL OF AGENDA - Approved
MOTION NO. 22-43(Approved): APPROVAL OF MINUTES of April 5, 2023
COMMUNICATIONS - None
Academic Appeals - Amber Darting - During the reorganization of Student Success some things moved over to Undergraduate Studies. Academic suspension and appeal process as well as Early Alert. Communications will be coming out soon. A new web page has been created. There are FAQs on the page and more will be added. Amber indicated they would like feedback if there are things faculty would like to see added to the page. The Board of Academic Appeals has a new faculty chair. They are working on creating trainings for the committee, as well as providing information to departments on the academic appeals process. There is a need for both faculty and students to serve on the committee next year.

CWU Grad Survey - Katrina Whitney and Andrew Burr - Starting a new survey of CWU graduates. The survey is part of the National Association for Careers and Employers (NACE). This will allow us to see how the university is preparing the graduates for their future employment. Questions are whether they found a job, if they are finishing military service, going to graduate school, minimum salary, where they are starting out, where they got hired, where they might be attending graduate school, if they received a hiring bonus, etc. Then based on these results, we are going to see where we are succeeding and where we can better serve students. After the survey is completed, the results will be on the Career Services website. Striving to get a $65 \%$ completion rate. Implementation will include text messages, call center and campus partners. Campus partners are going to include faculty advisors, staff, and students. College of Business did a pilot last summer. Hope is to launch this June 1st. There will be a follow-up at six months and another at nine months. Faculty will have access to the information received from this survey. The data will be released for the 2023 graduates in December of 2024.

SENATE CHAIR REPORT Welcome again Senators and guests, to our first May Senate meeting. As a reminder, the final Senate meeting of the 2022-2023 academic year will take place not on the first Wednesday of June, but rather on May 31. This is to avoid having a senate meeting during finals week.

Next Wednesday Joel Klucking will be doing a budget presentation at 4:00 p.m. right after the open EC meeting in Grupe. Encourage senators to attend and may invite faculty would like to attend. Will be sending this information out to faculty.

Wildcat shop sent out a survey this week. Encourage faculty to respond soon as the survey closes on Monday.

Now is a good time to remind your department faculty of curriculum dates and deadlines for next year. Deadlines for changes to general education courses are on October 6. This means that you may want to consider working on proposals this spring. The ADI committee is working on finalizing the Curriculog form to submit courses to meet the ADI graduation requirement. That form is on track to go live this Spring. ADI courses will have the same deadline as Gen Ed, October 6.

The Shared Governance Sensemaking group met Monday, April 24 . We will meet once more this term to plan next steps, and how to include additional shared governance voices on campus next year, as we continue this important work.

Thank you for encouraging your faculty colleagues to participate in commencement this Spring. Regalia rental was extended to this Friday.

FACULTY ISSUES

Updates
Senator Bowen presented a concern about vacuuming in faculty offices. Chair Samples spoke with Joel Klucking regarding this concern. Joel indicated there is a base service level agreement. This agree includes vacuuming in non-office spaces. To make a change in this agreement, this would need to be negotiated with Facilities Management as a new service agreement. Will share this document if individuals would like to see it.

Senator Goerger expressed a concern about the drop/add period being too long. Chair Samples reported that our current add/drop period is more or less like other institutions in the state. These are our practices, so can change this if desired.

Senator in Education had brought forward a concern about faculty shortages in that department. Chair Samples had a conversation with the Dean of CEPS. While Faculty Senate can't direct positions, we encourage faculty to work with department chairs to advocate for positions.

Senator Bisgard brought up a question if there was faculty consultation with the Direct Appointments policy. Chair Samples reported that the Executive Committee (EC) met with Staci Sleigh-Layman and provided feedback. Changes to the policy were made based on that feedback.

New Faculty Issues
Senator Harper asked a follow-up question regarding the Add/Drop dates. Were the comparison institutions on quarter system? The answer is yes, all the institutions in the state that they looked at are on the quarter system.

STUDENT REPORT - Charles reported that the Student Academic Senate has been doing a number of spring events, such as Chalk and Talk and Bubble Trouble. Two new senators have joined this spring. The work environment in Dining has been brought to the Student Academic Senate. Students deadnames being used for commencement has been a concern. Currently a student is not allowed to have their name go on the PowerPoint at Commencement.

Brady Smith talked about the proposed values for all shared governance groups. ASCWU has been asked to provide feedback on the values. Some of the feedback is students prefer the longer version of the values. Would like to see the Yakama Tribal language to be utilized throughout the values. Larger classes may help with time to degree as faculty are freed up to teach other courses. Small classes are not necessarily providing the benefits all the time that we think they are.

OLD BUSINESS - None

Evaluation and Assessment Committee - written report

General Education Committee - written report

Faculty Legislative Representative - written report.

Bernadette reported that the legislative session ended on April $23^{\text {rd }}$. The budget went to the Governor on April $24^{\text {th }}$. The Governor has 20 days to either approve, veto or line-item veto the budget. The deadline is May $17^{\text {th }}$. A full report will be provided at the last meeting for the year. There was some funding for the Arts Education pre-design, decarbonization planning, Humanities and Social Science Complex. There was funding for the multicultural center, minor works for preventive maintenance and additional mental health counselors.

PRESIDENT - Hopefully departments are working on the values and strategic planning process which is due May $24^{\text {th }}$. The next in this process will be the division strategic plans which will begin this fall. Will be reaching out to the Faculty Senate about shared governance regarding campus police. The legislative fund split percentage was $50 \%$, and the bill put forward is at $70 \%$ of the state salary increases. They are working on how they count staff. The tuition increase came out at $3 \%$. With both of these increases CWU will come close to covering the salary increases, but not completely. The North Academic Complex asked for $\$ 103$ million. The budget provides for $\$ 92$ million this upcoming biennium and $\$ 11$ million in the biennium after that. CWU requested $\$ 6$ million for the multicultural complex, which is for the academic portion of the building, the other $\$ 16$ million will need to come from student funding.

PROVOST - There are a lot of administrative changes happening. The College of Business Dean search is underway. There is a good pool of candidates. The committee is narrowing it down to the four final candidates to bring to campus. The search for the Library Dean has just ben solidified. We will continue with the interim Dean of the College of Arts and Humanities but will start talking about the permanent position. Graduate Studies conversations are ongoing. The Provost indicated they are hesitant to hire leadership for Graduate Studies before continuing conversations on a direction. Conversations will start this spring and continue into next fall. A graduate student group has been put together. The Provost will be hiring two assistant vice president's. These positions should be a cost savings and at worst cost neutral. Gail Mackin's role has been important, and the second position will be faculty relations. Faculty Relations will absorb Multimodal. Both of these are open positions and encourage colleagues to apply for them. These should be relatively quick internal services. International will report to the Provost. CIH and Running Start will report to Undergraduate Studies. The Provost is working on the reporting structure for the Centers.

CHAIR-ELECT - Chair Elect Eklund reported the next open EC meeting will be Wednesday, May 10 in Grupe Center from 3:00-4:00 p.m.. There will be a special budget presentation directly following open EC from 4:00-5:00 p.m. also in the Grupe Center.

NEW BUSINESS - Melisa Schiel indicated there are differing messages from middle and upper administration about course fees. The Music Department asked to implement course fees to support the department. The applications for course fees were denied without any communication back to the department. Faculty must fund raise to provide a major program. Financial disparity between areas and inequity.

Meeting adjourned at 4:36 p.m.

New Revision X

Summary of changes and/or additions:

Change aligns Faculty Code with the CBA.

Rationale for changes and/or additions:

Aligning the Faculty Code with the CBA was required to ensure that Code reflects the most current version of the CBA. The EC felt that duplicating the CBA language rather than simply referencing the CBA strengthens the Faculty Code.
*rather than identifying inconsistencies between Code and the CBA and in an effort to ensure and exact match, a complete substitution of the CBA language appears below.

Section I. Faculty

ix. In consultation with the department faculty (identified in paragraph iv. above) and the Provost, the appropriate dean may initiate an external search for a chair. An external search for a chair must follow university hiring policy and procedure.

New Revision $X$

Summary of changes and/or additions:

- Suggestions for replacement of gendered language throughout the Faculty Code.
- Suggestions for clarification/revision of minor issues (beyond clerical) in the Faculty Code

Rationale for changes and/or additions:

Many areas of the Faculty Code require updating binary gender labels with more neutral and inclusive terminology (e.g. replacement of the titles/terms 'Emerita/Emeritus' with 'E/emerit' and 'his/her' with 'they'). The Latin term emeritus was originally used to refer to soldiers who had completed their military duty. The term was later used for those retiring from professional positions and emerita to refer to female retirees. Freyd (Professor Emerit: It is Time to Reject Gendered Titles for Retired Faculty; 2021) points out a few issues with the use of the masculine 'Emeritus'; 1) "The common usage makes gender salient in situations where it need not be made salient." (para 2) and 2) "[the terms Emeritus/Emerita] force a binary distinction that may be particularly oppressive to some individuals." (para 3). The following universities have formally adopted the gender-neutral term Emerit; University of Wisconsin-Madison (2022), University of Oregon (2022).

Additionally, the BFCC identified errors, typos, and inconsistencies throughout the Code during the 2021-2022 AY that were identified at the time as being potentially more than just clerical changes.

Disclaimer

The title of this document is the Faculty Code (hereinafter referred to as the "Code"). The provisions of this document may not conflict with the actions of the Board of Trustees (BOT) or the Collective Bargaining Agreement (CBA). The collective bargaining process addresses mandatory subjects of bargaining and other aspects of the terms and conditions of employment that the parties agree to bargain.

Preface

History

Central Washington University (CWU) faculty first created a "Faculty Code of Personnel and Policy" during the 1946-1947 academic year, which was subsequently approved by the faculty, President, and BOT. This Code approved an 11-member Faculty Council that in 1962 became the Faculty Senate (Senate). With the approval of a CBA in 2006, the BOT approved the administration to create a new Faculty Code reflecting the conditions of the post-Collective Bargaining Agreement (CBA) environment. What follows is the result of that collaboration.

Shared Governance

Constituents: President, BOT, students, faculty, staff, alumni, and community members. Shared governance is both an iterative planning process and a collaborative culture in which relevant constituents of CWU commit themselves to being partners in aligning their priorities to accomplish the mission of CWU. Shared governance functions through an organizational structure that fosters active collaboration, transparency, accountability, understanding, and acceptance of compromise, mutual respect, and trust.

For effective shared governance, we, as a university, must strive to improve our commitment, culture, collaboration, accountability, and transparency.

Commitment in shared governance consists, not only of written statements of support for shared governance, but also the creation and maintenance of mechanisms to allow for the allocation of time and resources to effectively carry out shared governance.

Our informal, collective network of attitudes, behaviors, and assumptions comprise our culture. Improvements in culture come from a commitment from university constituents to jointly consider difficult issues and to jointly develop strategic directions. Faculty should be a critical part in discussions surrounding themes central to the university mission. These themes include student outcomes, university revenue models, and campus capacity.

Meaningful participation by all relevant constituents during the formative stages of planning encompasses the ideal of collaboration in shared governance.

Shared governance is bolstered by consensus and clarity about who makes each type of decision on campus, as well as what role they have in the decision-making process. This clarity results in greater accountability.

Clear and honest communication by decision-makers to relevant constituents regarding the rationale for proposals and decisions aids transparency in shared governance.

Shared governance calls for a commitment on the part of faculty, the BOT and the administration to work together to strengthen and enhance the university. Shared governance is based on the principle that the division of authority and decision-making responsibility between faculty and administration should be based primarily on distinctive expertise and competence, and the legal responsibilities of each group as articulated in Washington State Law, the CBA and the Faculty Code. While the CBA strengthens that mission through evaluations of faculty, the Faculty Code and Senate helps guarantee administrative quality through meaningful evaluations of the university administration. Such evaluations include regular evaluation periods, publication of results (in the form of data) to pertinent stakeholders and clear statements on the use of evaluations of administrators by the BOT and its administrative agents.

University and College committees - be they ad hoc or standing and regardless of their originating body - serve as the most vital centers of such collective decision-making and consultation. As such, the BOT, its administrative agents, faculty, staff, and students must all be allowed the opportunity to choose their own representatives for committees. Additionally, the administration and faculty must mutually commit to the time and supportive resources necessary for shared governance.

The Senate serves as the broadest representation of faculty at which the administration is present, and consultation with a quorum of the Senate functions as the most basic level of meaningful consultation between the Faculty and the Administration.

Shared governance acknowledges the interdependence among the BOT, its administrative agenda, faculty, staff, and students as well as the diverse expertise, talents, and wisdom that resides in each party. As such, shared governance requires that meaningful consultation rely on broad distribution of information to all stakeholders prior to making decisions. It also recognizes that unilateral actions as well as attempts to circumvent consultation damages the letter and spirit of shared governance. Commitment to this system will create a culture of mutual trust and respect, transparency, collaboration, and accountability.

Authority

Legal authority is lodged in the BOT and delegated, through the President, to the administration and the faculty. The university President discharges this responsibility through a system of academic colleges, departments and programs, non-academic divisions, and other units. The faculty discharges its responsibility through (a) a system of programs, departments and colleges designed to plan, develop, and implement programs and policies inherent to the unit; (b) the Senate; and (c) university, college, and department committees.

B. Other Faculty Appointments

The specific rights and responsibilities of faculty working in special roles shall be delineated in the agreement and/or contract with the appointing authority, subject to the terms of the CBA, e.g., interdisciplinary program director, academic program director within a department or graduate program director.

1. Election and Removal of Department Chairs
a. Election of Department Chairs
i. Department chairs are appointed to a four-year term.
ii. Department chairs are appointed upon the joint recommendation of the appropriate dean and department based on the process described below.
iii. For internal searches, each department holds an election to select its chair at a meeting presided over by the appropriate dean. The election of a chair is subject to the approval of the dean, the Provost, the President, and the BOT.
iv. Only eligible faculty in a department shall vote. Eligible faculty include tenured and tenure-track faculty and non-tenure-track faculty holding the title of assistant professor or senior lecturer as defined by the CBA. All eligible faculty shall be given a minimum of five (5) business days' notice of the meeting date. Reasonable effort should be made to include, by proxy vote or absentee ballot, eligible faculty who are in off-campus positions or on leave.
v. The election result shall be determined by simple majority vote of eligible faculty. Ballots must be cast in person, by certified proxy or by absentee ballot.
vi. In the case where three or more candidates are running, if no candidate receives a simple majority, there shall be a runoff vote for the candidates receiving the two highest votes.
vii. If two or fewer candidates are running and no candidate receives a simple majority, the election shall be considered a failed election and paragraph (viii) below shall govern.

The latter may have varying responsibilities and terms within a calendar year (e.g., academic year chair and summer term chair). Department policies must specifically address and delineate which one has the responsibilities for department management decisions such as budget, personnel, and curricular matters.
b. Removal or Replacement of Chairs
i. At any time, a simple majority of eligible faculty within a department may petition in writing to the appropriate dean for a review of the chair's effectiveness.
ii. If after the review, the appropriate dean, in consultation with the Provost, determines that a vote to recall and/or remove a department chair is warranted, the dean shall assure that a vote is conducted by secret ballot. The chair shall not participate in the balloting. All eligible faculty shall be given a minimum of five (5) business days' notice of the ballot date. Reasonable effort should be made to include, by proxy vote or absentee ballot, eligible faculty who are in off-campus positions or on leave.
iii. The appropriate dean may remove a chair at any time after consulting with an considering input from the Provost, the chair and the eligible faculty of the department if, in the judgment of the dean, removal is in the best interest of the department or the university.
c. Filling Temporary Chair Vacancies
i. When a chair is to be absent from the campus for a quarter or more, including summer, the department shall elect an acting chair from within its ranks, in accordance with I.B. 1 above, if for any reason the department is unable to elect an acting chair, the appropriate dean can appoint an acting chair for no more than one quarter.
ii. An elected acting chair may serve for a period of up to two (2) years.
iii. When the chair is to be on leave for more than two (2) academic years, the chair must resign and a new chair is elected.
2. Emeritus Emerit Faculty Appointments
a. Faculty, who are retiring from the university, may be retired with the honorary title of "emeritus" "emerit" status ascribed to their highest attained rank or title.
b. i. Faculty with emerit status may refer to themselves as emerit, emeritus, emeriti, emeritum or emerita.
ii. The emeritus emerit status is recommended for faculty members who have an excellent teaching, scholarly, and service record consistent with their appointments. A normal requirement for appointment to the emeritus faculty is ten (10) years of full-time service as a member of the teaching faculty.
iii. The emeritus emerit status is recommended for non-tenured faculty members who have an excellent teaching record. A normal requirement for eligibility to the emeritus faculty is for the faculty member to teach at least thirty (30) quarters over a minimum of ten (10) years and have an accumulated total of at least 200 WLUs as a member of the teaching faculty.
iv. Any eligible faculty member may be nominated, including self-nomination, for emeritus emerit status to the department chair. Nominations shall include a current vitae and may include letters of support.

G b. Process:

i. The department chair will send the nomination to the college dean with a copy to the nominee. The dean will arrange for a department vote of all eligible faculty.
ii. The college dean will then forward the nomination to the Provost with a recommendation of action and the results of the faculty vote. The Provost will then submit the nomination to the Board of Trustees with a recommendation of action and the results of the faculty vote and a copy of the recommendation by the dean.
d. c. Emeritus Emerit status is a privilege and is subject to state ethics laws and the Washington State Constitution. University-related activities that are not part of any part-time employment at the university as described in the CBA are considered "volunteer hours." These volunteer hours must be reported to the university payroll office by any emeritus faculty member every quarter for insurance purposes and for Department of Labor and Industries reporting.
e. d. The emeritus emerit status ascribed to the faculty member's highest rank or title provides for the listing of their name in the university catalog, use of the library and other university facilities, and participation in academic, social and other faculty and university functions. In addition, emeritus faculty:

Section II. Faculty Rights and Responsibilities

A. Faculty Rights

All faculty members have the right to:

1. participate in faculty and university shared governance by means of a system of elected faculty representatives on committees and councils at the departmental, college, university and Senate levels;
a. Among the rights valued by the Senate is the right of any faculty member to speak on issues pertaining to their responsibilities. The Faculty Senate provides a protected environment in which faculty may engage in speech and actions (including voting) without fear of reprisal or admonition by their supervisors or administration. Faculty members who feel their rights under this Code have been violated may file a complaint as outlined in Faculty Code Section III.G.d.
b. Be treated fairly and equitably and have protection against illegal and unconstitutional discrimination by the institution.
c. Academic freedom as set forth in the 1940 Statement of Principles on Academic Freedom and Tenure, American Association of University Professors (AAUP) and Association of American Colleges, now the Association of American Colleges and Universities (AAC&U), with 1970 Interpretive Comments (AAUP), and the CBA.
d. Access to their official files, in accordance with the CBA.
e. Access (according to appropriate work assignment) to accurate budgetary, enrollment, retention, and alumni data for reasons of recruitment, retention, fundraising, budgeting and unit governance.
2. College Budget Committees

Faculty have a right to:
a. Participate in budget decisions at department, college, and university levels, through the Faculty Senate Budget and Planning Committee (BPC), representatives on university budget committees and sub-committees, and representatives on college or unit budget committees (see Appendix C).
b. The AAUP Statement on Government of Colleges and Universities (1966) statement on refers to shared governance and makes clear that the BOT, administration, and faculty should "have a voice in the determination of shortand long-range priorities, and each should receive appropriate analyses of past budgetary experience, reports on current budgets and expenditures, and shortand long-range budgetary projections." All participants in the budget process have the right to sufficient information to be able to carry out their responsibilities.
c. All faculty involved in the budget process have the right to speak on issues pertaining to the faculty member's responsibilities as a participant in that process. The protections in II.A.1(a) apply to faculty members involved in the budget process at all levels.
B. Faculty Responsibilities

1. Principal Areas of Collective Faculty Responsibility

Collectively, the faculty has principal responsibility for academic policies and academic standards for such fundamental areas as curriculum, subject matter and methods of instruction, research, faculty status (as defined in the CBA), and those aspects of student life which relate to the educational process. Principal responsibility means that faculty, through the Senate and its committees, make decisions in consultation with the Provost, deans, and other administrators, subject to the approval of the President and the BOT.

These areas include
a. curriculum, including program revision, criteria for addition and deletion of courses, and standards for granting degrees;
b. subject matter and methods of instruction, including education policies, assessment of student learning, and grading standards;
c. governance of the General Education Program at the university;
d. scholarship, including research and creative activity, freedom of scholarly inquiry and standards for evaluation of faculty scholarship;
e. implementation of CBA processes, including development of substantive content regarding faculty status, including faculty ethics, peer review in hiring, tenure, promotion, post-tenure review, and merit;
f. those aspects of student life that relate to the academic experience, including student academic ethics and academic co-curricular policies;
g. criteria for admissions to undergraduate matters;
h. criteria for admissions to graduate programs and selection of graduate students;
i. participation in accreditation and assessment.
2. Areas of Individual Faculty Responsibility

In addition to the collective responsibilities listed above, each faculty member has the responsibility to:
a. fulfill assigned teaching duties, student advising, and other instructional activities benefiting students' academic development;
b. follow policies and guidelines served from those policies by the university, college, and department;
c. perform professional activity for continual updating of course content to reflect current development in the faculty member's academic field;
d. uphold standards of professional ethics outlined in the AAUP Statement on Professional Ethics (see Appendix A of this Code) and the CBA;
e. participate, where appropriate in the operation and governance of the department, college, and university by such means as to:
i. assist in the planning, delivery, assessment, improvement, and development of the academic curriculum in the disciplines housed in the department;
ii. participate in accreditation and program reviews;
iii. assist in student recruitment and retention;
iv. participate in the academic appeals procedure in accordance with guidelines established in Academic Affairs policy;
v. participate in the recruitment and selection of faculty, staff and administrators;
vi. participate with administrators in matters of faculty status such as reappointment, tenure, and promotions, per the terms of the CBA;
vii. participate in the assessment and evaluation of students, faculty, staff and academic administrators;
viii. participate in university and Senate committees;
ix. work collaboratively and productively with colleges.
C. Areas Meriting Significant Faculty Consultation

Because all aspects of the university are interconnected, consultation with faculty is essential in areas that significantly affect the academic character and quality of the university. Consultation occurs through substantive discussions between administrators and appropriate faculty bodies as specified in this document and as required by the collective bargaining process.
The more directly decisions affect the academic character and quality of the university, the more extensive and consultation with faculty should be. Ideally, decisions will reflect consensus between the administrative leadership and the appropriate bodies of the faculty.
Areas for faculty consultation include, but are not limited to:

1. university and college mission;
2. undergraduate and graduate admissions, enrollment management, and scholarships;
3. budget;
4. hiring and evaluation of academic administrators;
5. recommendation of candidates for honorary degrees;
6. academic facilities, including instructional technologies;
7. aspects of student life that affect academic climate and quality;
8. policies related to academic calendars; creation, reorganization, or renaming of academic units.

D. Procedures for Faculty Consultation

1. When consultation with faculty is sought, the initiator (e.g. an administrator or representative of a decision-making unit) will submit a request to the Faculty Senate Executive Committee (EC). Depending on the scope, the request may be submitted in the form of electronic or paper communication. The initiator's request should include:
a. a succinct, written summary of the matter;
b. preliminary identification of faculty bodies that might be impacted or for whom this might be relevant;
c. an assessment of potential positive AND negative impacts on colleges, departments, faculty, or other entities as relevant;
d. in cases of creation, reorganization, or renaming of academic units.
2. In cases of creation, reorganization, or renaming of academic units, $\mp$ the EC will:
a. Verify the list of faculty bodies that might be impacted.
b. Propose a procedure for faculty consultation and input, usually consisting of the following mechanisms:
i. "Committee Review": Send the proposal to a Senate committee or task force for review. Senate committees are responsible for representing faculty and may also, as part of their deliberations, need to solicit broader faculty input, as outlined below.
ii. Solicit representative faculty input using one or more of the following procedures:
a) "Faculty Input": Solicit input via the system of senator representatives. This may include an oral presentation of the issue in Senate that includes a written communication via the Senate to faculty senators. This communication will include open-ended questions that solicit a range of concerns or ideas that might pertain to the issue. The communication should provide an end date for feedback (no less than 2 weeks). The EC will help compile the ideas in preparation for the next step(s).
b) "Faculty Survey": Administer a survey to the faculty via the Senate office. If the initiators do not have expertise in survey design, they must consult with those with such expertise to ensure a valid survey (e.g., is not leading or pre-determined).
c) "Faculty Vote": Give faculty the opportunity to participate in a confidential vote (online or in paper) over a specified time period (no less than 2 weeks). The faculty vote can precede or follow solicitation of broader faculty input.
3. Gather data to gain an understanding of the issues pertaining to the topic or initiative in one or both of the following ways:
a. "Focus group": Invite a representative sample of potentially impacted parties to a focus group. If the initiators do not have expertise in focus group design or facilitation, they must secure help from those with such expertise.
b. "Faculty forum": Invite all faculty to a forum to convey information and solicit feedback.
4. In most cases, no one mechanism, alone, can be considered an adequate opportunity for input. Also, the following in isolation do not constitute valid "consultation with faculty": consultation only with the EC, Senate Chair, or other individual members of a Senate committee; or representation by one or several faculty on a committee. Moreover, consultation with faculty through Senate does not preclude consultation with other units, with which consultation may be required or advised (e.g. UFC or the Academic Department Chairs' Organization (ADCO).
5. After consultation the initiator:
a. will submit documentation of the process to the EC and how the input was incorporated in the decision-making.

Section III. Distinguished Faculty Awards

1. Interpretation (Bylaws VII.A)

A request for formal interpretation of the Code must be submitted by a petitioner or petitioners to the BFCC. That committee shall review the request and make a written recommendation to the Senate, which shall take action on the recommendation. If the recommendation is forwarded to the BOT, the BOT shall take action on the recommendation within sixty (60) days of its receipt from the Senate.
2. Senate Forum (Bylaws VII.B)

The Senate forum is an open meeting, called by the Senate chair and/or EC, to which all members of the faculty shall be invited. Its usual purpose is for the Senate to convey information to the faculty and to solicit their feedback. All faculty are strongly encouraged to attend such a forum should a referendum be called.
3. Referendum (Bylaws VII.C)

The Senate may decide to refer any question or issue before it to the faculty-at-large for vote. All faculty are strongly encouraged to vote should it be called. Eligible faculty include TT/T faculty, full-time NTT faculty, and Senior Lecturers.
4. Senate Hearing (Bylaws VII.D)

Any ten (10) eligible faculty (as defined in Section IV.F.3) members may, by written petition filed with the Senate Chair, secure any opportunity, as a body or by selected representatives, to address the Senate in order to convey information, request Senate action, or propose policy changes on any matter over which the Senate has the power to act. The petitioners do not, however, have the power to advance motions (which resides only with members of the Senate) or to compel the Senate to act on any matter that they raise. Anonymity cannot be guaranteed.
5. Review by Faculty (Bylaws VII.E.)

All actions (motions passed) by the Senate shall be subject to review by the faculty if a written petition for review has been signed by at least ten (10) percent of faculty-at-large (as defined in Section IV.F.3 I.A.1.a.) and submitted to the Senate Chair. The petition must be filed no later than fourteen (14) days after the approval of the minutes of the Senate meeting during which the action to be reviewed was taken. If the Senate refused to change its position, a vote of the entire faculty on the Senate action under review shall be conducted by the EC. This vote shall determine whether or not the Senate action is reversed.
6. Amendment Process
a. Amendments to the Code may be proposed only by members of the Senate.
b. Copies of all amendments shall normally be sent to all members of the Senate, and must be formally read and incorporated in the minutes of two consecutive Senate meetings. But for an exception, see paragraph e. below.
c. An amendment may be voted on during the meeting following the meeting in which the proposal was read for a second time. Approval of an amendment requires a two-thirds majority of those present and voting.
d. Upon final approval of an amendment to the Code, the motion number and date shall be noted in the revised language.
e. Purely clerical amendments (i.e., to spelling, grammar, structure, or organization) that do not affect content can be an exception to paragraphs b-d above. If the BFCC votes unanimously that an amendment is purely clerical; and if the EC votes unanimously in agreement; then, and only then, the amendment may be presented to the BOT for approval with without being read and voted on by the Senate. If any member of either the BFCC or the EC does not agree that the amendment is purely clerical, the amendment process must proceed as specified in paragraphs b-d above.
f. All amendments are subject to final approval by the BOT.

G. External Senate Procedures for the Protection of Faculty Rights and Responsibilities

The university encourages open communication and resolution of such matters through the informal processes described herein. The university will not tolerate reprisals, retribution, harassment or discrimination against any person because of participation in this process. This section establishes an internal process to provide university faculty a prompt and efficient review and resolution of complaints.

All university administrators shall be attentive to and counsel with faculty concerning disputes arising in areas over which the administrators have supervisory or other responsibilities, and shall to the best of their ability contribute to timely resolution of any dispute brought to them.

i. Prior to submitting a formal complaint to the Senate, complainant(s) are strongly encouraged to make a good faith effort to discuss the complaint with the dean or member of the university administration having direct responsibility for the area of concern. It is acknowledged that the nature of some complaints precludes such a step. If no mutually acceptable resolution of the complaint can be reached, complaint(s) complainant(s) may file a formal written complaint with the Senate for review.

vi. The complaint will be delivered to all members of the EC at the next scheduled EC meeting. The EC has the primary responsibility to ensure and to arrange an appropriate review by applicable committees. The EC will conduct an initial review of the complaint within 10 business days during the academic year to determine:
a) Whether the complaint falls within the Senate's purview. If not, the EC will return the complaint to the complainant(s) with recommendations as to the appropriate avenue for resolution to the complaint.
b) Whether the complaint package is complete. If incomplete, the EC may request the complainant(s) to revise and resubmit the complaint.
vii. Depending on the basis for complaint, the EC will charge the appropriate Senate standing committee(s) or at its discretion may decide to form an ad hoc committee to review the complaint. The assigned committee shall write an opinion specifically addressing the alleged policy and code violations. The committee(s) will be given specific parameters to work with and shall be required to consider all application of the code and policies.
viii. The EC will determine the membership of the ad hoc committee, and will not include members who may have a real or perceived conflict of interest. The ad hoc committee shall consist of at least three tenured faculty members. The EC may invite other representatives depending on the nature of the complaint.

2. Vote of No Confidence

Academic administrators may be subject to a Vote of No Confidence. Votes of No Confidence require two primary steps. The first step (Section a-c) is an authorization vote by the Senate to determine the specific parameters of the Vote of No Confidence (who, what, where, when and why) as well as to charge the Senate (EC) with the authority to conduct the Vote of No Confidence. The second step (Section d) is the implementation of the Vote of No Confidence by the EC.

a. Motions to Authorize a Vote of No Confidence

i. There are two avenues that can be used to initiate the authorization of a Vote of No Confidence.
a) Any Senator, when accompanied by a written second to the motion from another Senator, may bring a motion to hold a Vote of No Confidence.
b) Any ten (10) eligible faculty members (Section I.A. Faculty Defined) may bring a petition to hold a Vote of No Confidence.
ii. Authorization motions must be submitted to the Senate Chair at least ten (10) working days before the next regular meeting of the Senate when the motion is intended to be introduced. This motion charges the EC to conduct a Vote of No Confidence. The motion must include:
a) name and title of administrator;
b) instructions guiding how the vote is to be conducted (i.e. time/day, voting period, who may vote);
c) the specific ballot language; and
d) reason and justification for the Vote of No Confidence.
iii. Methods of conflict resolution reasonably available (e.g. informal talks, mediation, etc.) should have been exhausted before bringing a motion for a Vote of No Confidence to the Senate.

b. Committee Review of the Motion for a Vote of No Confidence

i. The EC - or an ad hoc committee appointed by the EC - will be charged with reviewing the motion for any procedural or factual content before it goes to the floor of the Senate. The reviewing committee may consult with individuals or groups (e.g. originator(s) or subject of the vote) as needed while assessing any claims made in support of the motion.
ii. If the EC or ad hoc committee determines that additional time is needed to review any claims or procedural issues, the committee may request an additional delay until the following meeting. However, the motion must be brought to the floor of the Senate at the following meeting (within 2 regularly scheduled Senate meetings since being submitted to the Senate Chair) unless withdrawn by the originator(s).
iii. The EC or ad hoc committee may, at its discretion, issue a report to the Senate with any factual or procedural findings for their review of the motion.
iv. The Senate Chair will notify the individual subject to the Vote of No Confidence motion at least five (5) working days after receipt of the motion and invite that person to the Senate meetings where the motion will be introduced.
c. Floor Vote on Motion for a Vote of No Confidence
i. Upon review by the EC or ad hoc committee, the authorization motion for the Vote of No Confidence will be introduced at the next Senate meeting. The text of the motion, as well as any reports or additional commentary by reviewing committees will be distributed to Senate.
d. Conducting the Vote of No Confidence
i. Upon being passed by a simple majority vote in the Senate, the EC will carry out the Vote of No Confidence as outlined in the motion. Votes will be conducted by a confidential paper ballot. The EC will decide any details regarding the implementation of the vote that were not addressed in the motion.
ii. The EC will notify the subject of the vote, in writing, of the results at least (1) day prior to the results being made public. Results of the vote will be made public in the Faculty Senate office and will also be sent to the original petitioner(s) (Section IV.G.2.a), Senators, the President of the University, and BOT.

Appendix A: Statement on Professional Ethics

From the AAUP Policy Documents and Reports (Red Book).

The following statement, a revision of a statement originally adopted in 1966, was approved by the Assoriation's Committor Professional Ethics, adopted by the Assoriation's Councilin June 1987, and endorsed by the Seventy-third Annual Meeting.

Statement on Professional Ethics

The statement that follows was originally adopted in 1966. Revisions were made and approved by the Association's Council in 1987 and 2009.

Introduction

From its inception, the American Association of University Professors has recognized that membership in the academic profession carries with it special responsibilities. The Association has consistently affirmed these responsibilities in major policy statements, providing guidance to professors in such matters as their utterances as citizens, the exercise of their responsibilities to students and colleagues, and their conduct when resigning from an institution or when undertaking sponsored research. The Statement on Professional Ethics that follows sets forth those general standards that serve as a reminder of the variety of responsibilities assumed by all members of the profession.

In the enforcement of ethical standards, the academic profession differs from those of law and medicine, whose associations act to ensure the integrity of members engaged in private practice. In the academic profession the individual institution of higher learning provides this assurance and so should normally handle questions concerning propriety of conduct within its own framework by reference to a faculty group. The Association supports such local action and stands ready, through the general secretary and the Committee on Professional Ethics, to counsel with members of the academic community concerning questions of professional ethics and to inquire into complaints when local consideration is impossible or inappropriate. If the alleged offense is deemed sufficiently serious to raise the possibility of adverse action, the procedures should be in accordance with the 1940 Statement of Principles on Academic Freedom and Tenure, the 1958 Statement on Procedural Standards in Faculty Dismissal Proceedings, or the applicable provisions of the Association's Recommended Institutional Regulations on Academic Freedom and Tenure.

1) Professors, guided by a deep conviction of the worth and dignity of the advancement of knowledge, recognize the special responsibilities placed upon them. Their primary responsibility to their subject is to seek and to state the truth as they see it. To this end professors devote their energies to developing and improving their scholarly competence. They accept the obligation to exercise critical self-discipline and judgment in using, extending, and transmitting knowledge. They practice intellectual honesty. Although professors may follow subsidiary interests, these interests must never seriously hamper or compromise their freedom of inquiry.
2) As teachers, professors encourage the free pursuit of learning in their students. They hold before them the best scholarly and ethical standards of their discipline. Professors demonstrate respect for students as individuals and adhere to their proper roles as intellectual guides and counselors. Professors make every reasonable effort to foster honest academic conduct and to ensure that their evaluations of students reflect each student's true merit. They respect the confidential nature of the relationship between professor and student. They avoid any exploitation, harassment, or discriminatory treatment of students. They acknowledge significant academic or scholarly assistance from them. They protect their academic freedom.
3) As colleagues, professors have obligations that derive from common membership in the community of scholars. Professors do not discriminate against or harass colleagues. They respect and defend the free inquiry of associates, even when it leads to findings and conclusions that differ from their own. In the exchange of criticism and ideas professors show due respect for the opinions of others. Professors acknowledge academic debt and strive to be objective in their professional judgement judgment of colleagues. Professors accept their share of faculty responsibilities for the governance of their institution.
4) As members of an academic institution, professors seek above all to be effective teachers and scholars. Although professors observe the stated regulations of the institution, provided the regulations do not contravene academic freedom, they maintain their right to criticize and seek revision. Professors give due regard to their paramount responsibilities within their institution in determining the amount and character of work done outside it. When considering the interruption or termination of their service, professors recognize the effect of their decision upon the program of the institution and give due notice of their intentions.
5) As members of their community, professors have the rights and obligations of other citizens. Professors measure the urgency of these obligations in the light of their responsibilities to their subject, to their students, to their profession, and to their institution. When they speak or act as private persons, they avoid creating the impression of speaking or acting for their college or university. As citizens engaged in a profession that depends upon freedom for its health and integrity, professors have a particular obligation to promote conditions of free inquiry and to further public understanding of academic freedom.

APPENDIX C: College Budget Committees

Section I. DEFINITION

For the purpose of this section, "college budget committee" will also include the library budget committee, and "college" refers to an academic college and the library.

Section II. COLLEGE POLICIES

The principles below are broad guidelines relative to faculty rights and responsibilities on college budget committees. Colleges shall establish their own specific policies and guidelines for their budget committees, which at a minimum, should adhere to the principles and practices below. College budget committee policies shall be approved by a vote of a simple majority of all the faculty in the college.

Section III. COMPOSITION

A. College deans shall ensure that college budget committees:

1. Are broadly representative of the departments in the college. All faculty are eligible to serve on the committees. All members of the committee must be members of the college. Faculty (including chairs) shall represent at least $2 / 3$ of the voting members of the committee.
2. Have clearly delineated terms that allow for continuity on the committee.

Section IV. COMMITTEE RESPONSIBILITIES

A. The committees are consultative groups for the deans, and are the minimum required consultation on college and unit budget questions. Larger questions may require broader consultation, as outlined in I.D., Faculty Consultation.
B. The committees shall review and make recommendations about the entirety of the college budget.
C. Committees shall report back on the faculty in their college on a regular basis.

Section V. COMMITTEE MEMBER RESPONSIBILITIES

A. Faculty members of the committee represent the greater good of the college and will make budgetary recommendations based on a broad range of faculty interests and ideas.

Exhibit F

Faculty Bylaws

Title of Section: II. Executive Committee, C. Officers, 4. Past-Chair.

New x Revision

Summary of changes and/or additions:

Section reorganized so that chair-elect positioned before the chair. Additionally, a section outlining the duties of the past chair was added.

Rationale for changes and/or additions:

Section C. lists chair-elect and chair duties but did not list past chair.

Proposed language:

C. Officers

1. Terms of office: Election to the position of chair-elect assumes a three-year commitment to the EC: the first year as chair-elect, the following year as chair, and the third year as immediate past chair. Service to the EC takes priority over any existing terms of office and the chair-elect remains a voting member of Senate for the three-year commitment.

3-2. Chair-Elect.

The chair-elect shall serve in the place of the chair in the latter's absence. In the event of a vacancy in the chairship after the beginning of the chair's term of office, the chair-elect shall become the chair and serve as such for the remainder of the chair's term of office, and a new chair-elect shall be elected. The chair-elect shall serve as the liaison between the BFCC Council of Faculty Representatives and the EC and 1 to all non-senate committees, task forces, and councils.

2.3. Chair.

The chair is the chief executive officer of the Senate. The chair's powers and duties are set out in the Code, Section IV.C.3. The chair's department may elect an interim senator for one year to represent the department during the chair's term of service.

4. Past Chair

The past chair performs duties and provides advice that is requested by the chair or EC and participates in the leadership transition of senate. The past chair will serve as timekeeper during senate meetings, serve as a member of the Budget and Planning Committee (BPC), serve as a member of the Presidential Budget
4. 5. At the last Senate meeting of the academic year, the Senate shall elect a new chair-elect. The current chair shall provide a list of eligible members of the EC and oversee the election process.

Title of Section:

III. Senate Standing Committees, C. Membership, sections 3 and 4

Revision

Summary of changes and/or additions:

Student members of the AAC and FSCC changed to non-voting members.

Rationale for changes and/or additions:

Students are valuable members of Faculty Senate committees. However, over the years student membership has not been able to be consistent sometimes causing problem with committees meeting quorum. A number of years ago it was decided that all student representatives on Senate committees would become non-voting members. This change will update the Faculty Bylaws to reflect this.
