ELEF 495 - Practicum IV: Professional Engagement (2 credits)

Description:

ELEF 495 is an opportunity for education students to implement and assess integrated instructional activities within the context of service. It is an opportunity for students to begin to implement plans and strategies that will apply to their student teaching experience. A minimum 40 observation/engagement hours at assigned school(s) will complement the student's attendance at university-led weekly seminars.

CWU Student Expectations:

- Engage with elements of an ethical classroom.
- Design and implement a service-oriented content-integrated learning project to benefit the community/school.
- Provide constructive student feedback.
- Learn and become fluent in the district curriculum.

Course Outcomes:

Upon successful completion of this course, the student will be able to:

- Engage in math assessment and inquiry-based instruction.
- Identify elements of an ethical classroom.
- Design and implement a service-oriented content-integrated learning project to benefit the community/school.

Supervision:

CWU site supervisor will conduct observations and/or visits. Elementary school personnel should complete the Focus of Concern Form or contact the Coordinator of Field Experiences (Heather.Spalding@cwu.edu) if concerns arise.
