LEARN. DO. LIVE.
A WALKING TOUR
CENTRAL WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY
ELLENSBURG, WASHINGTON

STUDENT UNION AND RECREATION CENTER BOX: Opened in spring 2011, the Student Union Center houses the SURC, a 15,000-square-foot, three-story student union. The student union is home to several student-centered organizations, including student government offices, Campus Life, Diversity Education Center, Civic Engagement Center, student clubs, and the Connection Card office. The SURC, an Upper West entrance, is a two-story, 110,000-square-foot recreation center that is open to the public. The facility offers a four-court gymnasium, an elevated jogging track, free weights, fitness classes, and a space for the Wildcat football player who was killed in World War II, the stadium is home to Wildcat football. The stands are named for Sonny and Carmody are currently used by the Conference Center. The facility is located in the north campus. Student Hall office, our own, and there is also located in the north campus.

BREEZE THROUGH CAFE: Located on the bridge between Michelena and Randall halls, the cafe is open and features a variety of food and beverages. The cafe is open and features a variety of food and beverages.

NICHOLSON PAVILION: Originally built in 1916 and renovated in 1968, Nicholson's original structure was located in the southeast corner of the campus. The pavilion features a large gymnasium with locker rooms, a student health center, and a student lounge area. The pavilion also includes a student health center, and a student lounge area.

DOROTHY PUSHER HALL: Back entrances to the Department of Agriculture, Sustainability, and Community Science, the building is home to the Department of Ag, Sustainability, and Community Science.

AQUATICS FACILITY: Home to an NCAA-regulation pool with eight-lane swimming lanes and a lap area, the pool is home to Wildcat Athletics, Nicholson and Randall halls, and Community Science.

TOMLINSON STADIUM: Named for Jack Tomlinson, a former Wildcat football player and university president, the stadium is home to Wildcat football. The stand is named for Jack Tomlinson, a former Wildcat football player and university president, the stadium is located in the southeast corner of the campus. The stand is located in the southeast corner of the campus.

AERATION TOWER: Designed to handle the maintenance of the water tower in the upper west campus. The building is located in the southeast corner of the campus. The building is located in the southeast corner of the campus.

WINDSOR HALL: Opened in fall 2011, Windsor Hall includes two instructional buildings, one for east campus and the other for west campus. The buildings are located on the northeast corner of the campus. The buildings are located on the northeast corner of the campus.

MEISNER HALL: Located in the northwest corner of the campus. The building is located in the northwest corner of the campus.

RANDOLPH HALL: Home of the Department of Art, Randall has large rooms, a kitchenette, a hallway, and a private bathroom. The rooms are furnished and have a microwave. The rooms are furnished and have a microwave.