Executive Board Report:

- Chair: Spencer Biallas: This week I have been under the weather and have been thinking about program ideas to execute throughout spring quarter. A few of these events include community clean-up and a 5K to fight against drunk driving. Other than that, I have just been working on getting the office organized and getting back in to the swing of things for the new quarter.
- Community Programmer: Olivia Durham: The past couple of weeks, I have been busy organizing everything for the new quarter. I would like to remind all of you about the event calendar in the backspace that you are able to refer to when planning events. I had also asked each of you to come to the meeting with your organization's new meeting details, so I will pass around the form for you all to fill out. Next on my radar is the President's Round table; this will be happening in a couple of weeks, so please be sure to
- Advisor: Michelle Cyrus: I hope you all have had a great spring break. I want to let all of the ESC reps know that they need to be in constant communication with their advisors so that the advisors are on the same page as the rest of your organization. Also, please get Olivia your advisor's contact information as soon as possible. On April 15th, Dark Girls, which is featured as a part of the Black Film Series. This will be at 6:30pm in Black 151. John Quiñones from the show "What Would You Do" is coming to CWU on April 20th, so, be sure to get your tickets for that. There will also be a film featured as a part of the Queer Film Series on the April 21st. Jumping back, on the 14th a multigenerational panel will be having a discussion in the Pit. That should be interesting, so be sure to come by
