OFFICER REPORTS

Executive VP Nick Shuey: I worked with the elections coordinator. This up and coming week I plan to work with the Director of Public Relations Erin Babcock and Kyle James on the ASCWU Spring Concert. He will also be working on resolution 15-3 this is the letter regarding service and activity committee fees.

VP Clubs and Organizations Philip Rush: Our continuity binder for next year, and passing some of the new club senate bylaws, and passing the remainder and the next meeting two weeks later.

VP Academic Affairs Jenn Treadway: Last week she went to the faculty senate meeting and brought up some of the issues regarding SAS. For instance the online classes, and the lack of engagement between students and professors. Next SAS meeting is tomorrow in black hall room 151 at 7pm.

VP Equity and Community Affairs Spencer Biallas: We worked on new recognition packets so that they can be recognized for the 2015-2016 school year. We are also putting on the min-it to win-it games tomorrow on Barto lawn, from 1-3pm. He also talked with his advisor to talk about a reserve fund for any roll over cash for the ESC. Also working on the continuity binder with the officer who will be taking over his position.

VP Legislative Affairs Cassie DuBore: Last week was college civics week, Monday was the community organization fair, and Tuesday she gave Representative Stambaugh a campus tour, Wednesday Representative Zeiger was here speaking and then elections took place on Thursday. As you can see the first amendment festival is this week, and hopefully next year we can go back to tying both of these events together. Congratulations to Nina Caldwell on being elected for the new VP of Legislative Affairs, which is a good reminder for her to start her continuity binder. This week I want to meet with CLCE to have a SWOT analysis on College Civics Week.

President Yosef Gamble: Dedicated a lot of last week was spent promoting elections, and sending CPORT messages to students reminding them to vote. Also congratulations to the new incoming board members, and reminding them to check their emails to have a smooth transition for next year. Updated president Guadino on the elections results, there were a lot of people in the legislature on the ballet so he wanted to make sure these were communicated. He also met with Andreas Bowman about the printer stations he has been talking about.

ISSUES/CONCERNS/ANNOUNCEMENTS

Yosef: Congratulations to the incoming officers, and he is excited to see the new initiative that will be taking place.

Cassie DuBore: A question for Nick are people allowed to apply to committees for next year?

Nick response: Yes they can apply but they will not be appointed by this board, they will have to be appointed by the incoming board.

Cassie: Question for Phil, are club allowed to be recognized for next year?

Phil Response: They did that last year but we are actually going to hold off, all recognition in the fall.

Cassie: JulieAnne from WSA will be here this Thursday and Friday, and this will be her last visit at CWU and last campus visit in general.

Nick: Will she be traveling with the new executive director and organizing director?

Cassie: No, I think it's just JulieAnne.
