

Photo and Video Release Form

I hereby grant permission to Central Washington University to use my photograph in official university printed publications, Web site, advertisements or other university media without further consideration, and I acknowledge the University's right to crop or treat the photograph at its discretion. I also acknowledge that the university may choose not to use my photo at this time, but may do so at its own discretion at a later date.

All photographers taking photographs on University property or of a University event must obtain a signed release form from any student or member of the public who has been asked specifically to pose for any photograph or video image. Crowd scenes where no single person is the dominant feature are exempt. These rules govern photographs intended for use in any University publication, Web site, promotional items, advertisements or other such material for marketing or a public relations nature. These rules are not in effect when photographs/videos are taken of news events, but photographs/videos taken for news purposes require a release for reuse in marketing or public relations materials.

This release has been approved by the Assistant Attorney General, assigned to Central Washington University.

I hereby grant Central Washington University permission to interview me and/or to use my likeness in photograph(s)/video in any and all of its publications and in all other media, whether now known or hereafter existing, controlled by Central Washington University, in perpetuity, and for other use by the University. I will make no monetary or other claim against Central Washington University for the use of the interview and/or the photograph(s)/video. Central Washington University reserves the right to discontinue use of photos without notice.
