Frequently Asked Questions about College of Business Scholarships by Students

Read the CB Scholarship Application before emailing/calling anyone with questions. Ninety-nine percent of your questions are answered in the actual application itself. Below are some questions that may need more explanation.

1. Can students currently in the process of transferring to Central Washington University and to the College of Business apply?

Yes, but students must be accepted to Central Washington University to APPLY (so that transcripts have been evaluated) but in order to USE the scholarship, students must be admitted to the College of Business by the summer quarter prior to the academic year they will be receiving the scholarship.

2. Can pre-majors apply?

Yes, but in order to USE the scholarship, students must be admitted to the College of Business by the summer quarter prior to the academic year they will be receiving the scholarship.

3. Can international students apply for scholarships?

Yes, international students can apply for scholarships.

4. Can part-time students apply?

Yes, part-time students can apply, but during the time that the scholarship is used, the student must be enrolled full-time (defined as 12 credits or more).

5. How much can be awarded?

Every year varies and individual awards vary, but for the most recent competition, the average amount awarded was over $5000.

6. When will the College of Business let students know if they are receiving a College of Business scholarship?

Those selected will be notified by the first week in April. Those not selected, will be notified soon thereafter.

7. If questions/issues exist after reading this and the application form itself, who can be contacted?

Email CBDeansOffice@cwu.edu