by teaching we learn
One hundred and twenty-five years ago, the founders of the Washington State Normal School sought to create an institution devoted to training educators about best practices in teaching. Over the next century and a quarter, the school grew into a college and, later, into a comprehensive degree-granting university.

Today, as it graduates its 125th class, Central Washington University is a top baccalaureate institution in the West. With more than 135 undergraduate majors, more than 35 graduate degree programs, and a reputation for excellence, Central is the proud result of the efforts and vision of all those who were part of its journey during the last 125 years.

A Guide to Academic Attire

The caps, gowns, and hoods worn at university functions date back to the Middle Ages. Monks and students of those days wore them to keep warm in the damp, drafty 12th century castles and halls of learning.

Various Degrees

Each college degree has a distinctive hood and gown. If more than one degree is held, the gown and hood of the highest degree are worn.

The gowns for the bachelor’s degrees have square yoke with shirring across the shoulders and back. The gown is primarily distinguished by its full open sleeves, which come to a point.

The holder of the master’s degree wears a gown with a yoke similar to the bachelor’s, but the distinctive long, narrow sleeves are closed at the end and trail below the arms. The arm comes through a slit part way down the sleeve.

Academic Colors

It is the hood that gives color and meaning to the academic attire.

The border colors for the various academic disciplines are:

- Accountancy: Drab
- Biological Sciences: Golden Yellow
- Chemistry: Golden Yellow
- Computer Science: Golden Yellow
- Education: Light Blue
- Engineering Technology: Orange
- English: White
- Family and Consumer Sciences: Maroon
- Fine Arts: Brown
- Geological Sciences: Golden Yellow
- History: White
- Information Technology and Administrative Management: Red
- Law and Justice: Purple
- Music: Pink
- Nutrition, Exercise and Health Sciences: Golden Yellow
- Physical Education: Sage Green
- Primate Behavior: Golden Yellow
- Psychology (MS): Golden Yellow
- Psychology (EdS): Light Blue
- Public Administration: Peacock Blue
- Resource Management: Golden Yellow
- Theatre Arts: Brown

Tassels

Students displaying colored tassels are receiving honors from CWU. Students who are displaying red tassels are graduating Cum Laude or with distinction. Those displaying silver tassels are graduating Magna Cum Laude or with high distinction. Those displaying gold tassels are graduating Summa Cum Laude or with highest distinction.

Silver Cortege

Leading the procession of graduates into commencement is the Silver Cortege, a select group of junior students who have achieved academic excellence at CWU. Selection is based on grade point average. An additional criterion for the Ellensburg ceremony is the completion of 75-quarter credits at CWU.

THE MACE

Since the Middle Ages, the mace has served as a symbol of power and authority. Originally designed as a weapon of battle, it gradually assumed a more ceremonial role and was typically carried by kings and church leaders as a sign of office.

Wilhelm Bakke, emeritus professor of Industrial and Engineering Technology crafted Central’s mace. It consists of a shaft of solid walnut, taken from a tree in the Kittitas Valley, surmounted by a four-sided headpiece plated in 24K gold. Three of the sides bear the letters, “C,” “W,” “U,” while the fourth bears the university seal. Two of the sides are backed by the university colors, crimson and black, and the others by the color green, signifying the Evergreen State. The mace, on display in the Board of Trustees meeting room in Barge Hall, is used only for official university functions.

UNIVERSITY MOTTO

Docendo discimus is Latin for “by teaching we learn.” That’s the motto and driving principle behind CWU, one of six state-assisted, four-year institutions of higher education in Washington. CWU brings university education into communities throughout the state. CWU’s residential campus is in Ellensburg, but it is co-located with community colleges in Lynnwood, Everett, Des Moines, Pierce County, Yakima, Moses Lake, and Wenatchee. CWU also offers more degrees online than any other Washington university.

On March 28, 1890, Gov. Elisha P. Ferry signed legislation that created the Washington State Normal School at Ellensburg. Its purpose then was defined as “the training and education of teachers in the art of instructing and governing in the public schools of the state.”

Since the first class of 86 students entered in 1891, the school has grown into a comprehensive institution of higher education. Washington State Normal School became Central Washington College of Education in 1937, Central Washington State College in 1961, and achieved university status in 1977.

SPRING AND SUMMER CANDIDATES

The listing of graduates, degrees, and academic honors for spring and summer 2017, in this program are preliminary and subject to final degree requirement evaluation. The posting of the earned degree on the official transcript record in Registrar Services remains the official testimony of possession of the degree. The diploma of CWU, signed and sealed by its appropriate officers, is a document bearing public notification of the degree.
Ellensburg Commencement Speaker

John Haroldson is a CWU alumnus (BA philosophy, 1986) and the first elected Latino district attorney in the state of Oregon.

After graduating from the University of Oregon School of Law in 1989, he served as an intern-prosecutor for the city of Albany, Oregon, worked as a Linn County deputy district attorney, and was appointed Benton County, Oregon, district attorney in 2007. He was elected to that post about a year-and-a-half later and re-elected in 2012 and 2016.

Haroldson has been recognized for excellence in prosecution by the Oregon Crime Victims Assistance Network and has been honored by the Oregon State Bar and the Oregon Hispanic Bar Association. He has served as adjunct faculty for the National District Attorneys Association, the Conference of Western Attorneys General, the American Bar Association, the American Prosecutors Association, The National Law Center, and Willamette University College of Law. His presentations on oral trial advocacy have reached more than 10,000 trial attorneys, judges, and investigators throughout Mexico and Central America.

The son of a Scandinavian father and a Mexican mother, he was raised both in the Pacific Northwest and in Monterrey, Mexico, where he developed a rich bilingual and bicultural perspective. He and his wife, Maria Teresa, and their two Chihuahuas live is Corvallis, Oregon.

Kent Commencement Speaker

Thomas “Tod” Nielsen is a CWU alumnus (business administration and information systems, 1988), who now serves as president and CEO of FinancialForce, one of the world’s top providers of cloud-based business software, which companies use to manage their accounting, inventory, and manufacturing processes.

Nielsen was fresh out of Bothell High School in 1983 when he started his own software company. Five years later, the CWU-Lynnwood graduate joined Microsoft, where he spent 12 years in various roles including general manager of database and developer tools, vice president of developer tools, and vice president of Microsoft’s platform group. He has been an executive at four of the five largest enterprise software companies, including: Microsoft, Oracle, VMware, and Salesforce. Additionally, Nielsen has served as executive vice president of platforms for Salesforce, which pioneered cloud business services, CEO of Borland Software, and CEO of Heroku, a cloud platform service provider.

The Seattle native now lives in the San Francisco Bay Area.

Honorary Doctor of Humane Letters (Honoris Causa)

As a member of the Washington State Senate, James D. “Jim” Honeyford led the successful efforts to secure legislative funding for the Science II Building and the Samuelson STEM Building projects on the CWU campus.

He holds three CWU degrees: a B.A. in sociology, one in education, and a master of education in instructional media. In 2014, he received the first-ever College of the Sciences Alumni of the Year award for social sciences.

In addition to serving in the State Senate since 1998, Honeyford was a member of the Washington House of Representatives from 1994-1998. He also worked as an Ellensburg police officer for six years before moving to Sunnyside for a 30-year career as a teacher, coach, and librarian in the Sunnyside School District. He has been a farmer since 1995.

He has been active with the Washington State Farm Bureau, Sunnyside Daybreak Rotary Club, Washington State Grape Society, and Sunnyside Chamber of Commerce. He is a lieutenant colonel in the Civil Air Patrol.

Honeyford and his wife, Jerri, have four adult children.

Alma Mater

Unto thee our Alma Mater,
Here we pledge devotion true.
Years may pass and time may bring
Us many a task that’s hard to do.

Still we’ll sing the old songs over,
Still we’ll call the old days back.
Still we’ll cheer the best of colors;
Hail the crimson and the black.

Still we’ll sing the old songs over,
Still we’ll call the old days back.
Still we’ll cheer the best of colors;
Hail the crimson and the black.
