College, Career, and Community Writers Program (C3WP) Summer Institute 2019

Central Washington University, Ellensburg Campus
July 29 – August 1, 2019
9:00 AM – 3:00 PM - Michaelson Building, Room 104

Who should participate?
• All 4th-10th grade teachers looking for dynamic and effective strategies for teaching opinion and argumentative writing
• Content area teachers who want to learn more about using writing to increase learning in all subjects
• Teachers who want to network with colleagues across the state and nation
• Teachers who want to build professional learning communities in their buildings and districts

“As a first year teacher I found C3WP’s mini-units and assessments to be user friendly, comprehensive, and time-saving. C3WP provided high interest articles that made my students truly want to read and write.”
- Swan Eaton, 6th Grade Teacher, Livingston Elementary, Pasco

Successful participants will be able to:
• Implement C3WP scaffolded writing instruction to meet the academic needs of ALL students, including English Learners, struggling readers and writers, and proficient writers.
• Implement the research-validated C3WP in their classrooms to improve student achievement in source-based argument and opinion writing.
• Integrate C3WP resources and formative assessments in upper elementary and secondary curricula.
• Utilize C3WP mini-units and instructional approaches to improve students’ critical reading skills.
• Utilize formative assessments to analyze students’ argument and opinion writing to plan next instructional steps focused on teaching specific argument skills.

“Successful participants will be able to:”

$299 per person
Clock Hours and Lunch included in fee.

Registration:
scan the QR code or go to

EEO/AA/TITLE IX INSTITUTION • FOR ACCOMMODATION EMAIL: DS@CWU.EDU