Course Description

English 100T is a study of academic written English with review of sentence and paragraph-level skills, such as word usage, sentence structure, organization, grammar, and mechanics with a reading component to improve comprehension of academic English; students will learn to write unified, coherent paragraphs and short compositions. Credits will not be allowed toward meeting bachelor’s degree requirements.

*Students must earn a minimum B- (80%) in order to receive a Satisfactory grade for the course.

Course Texts

- English Brushup is a workbook. You must purchase a new copy of this book. There will be a workbook check before the first grammar assignment is due to verify that you have a new copy.
Blackboard & GroupWise

Each student must ensure that he/she can access both Blackboard and GroupWise (e-mail) for communication purposes. Blackboard is an electronic tool that keeps track of grades and course documents and allows for communication between members of the class and the instructor. All course announcements posted on Blackboard will also be sent to students via GroupWise.

http://courses.cwu.edu/

All assignments will be posted on Blackboard only. Hard copies will not be provided. Each student is responsible to download and print assignments and rubrics.

Assignments & Evaluation (Grading)

The main goal of English 100T is to prepare you for English 101. This class is graded on a Satisfactory (S)/Unsatisfactory (U) scale. To receive an S, you must earn a B- or better (800 points, 80%). However, if you do not submit an Arguing Causes and Effects paper, you will not pass the course, no matter how many points you have at the end of the quarter.

Detailed information for each assignment will be provided via Blackboard.

Extra Credit Opportunities:
A. You can make up some of the points you miss if you are absent on the day of a quiz by writing a one-page excuse. Explain why you missed class. Lie to me. Make it an interesting story. (10 points—may be done one time)
B. Write a one-page fairy tale. Tell me a story about a great adventure. Make me laugh. (10 points—may be done one time)

C. In addition to your two required visits, visit the Writing Center and work with a tutor for at least 30 minutes. You can only visit the Writing Center for extra credit once per week. (10 points—may be repeated five times)

D. Read one of the following essays from 50 Essays and answer the questions at the end of the essay. (10 points—may be done one time)
   a. “Reading to Write” by Stephen King (pages 221-226)
   b. “Is Google Making Us Stupid?” by Nicholas Carr (pages 91-101)
   c. “Serving in Florida” by Barbara Ehrenrich (pages 129-138)

Writing Program Expectations

The Program’s faculty recognize that writing is a process and that writers depend on a community of readers. We expect each student to participate in this course in the following ways:

- prewriting to generate and clarify content;
- revising to provide economy, clarity, unity, and balance;
- editing your own work and the work of others;
- writing polished prose that is purposeful, clear, and effective;
• understanding and using criteria to self-assess your writing;
• working responsibly in writing groups;
• engaging critically and constructively in the exchange of ideas during class discussion, group activities, and conferences;
• demonstrating academic integrity in all written projects.

Class Policies

• Respect one another. Any student whose behavior is disruptive to the instructor or fellow students or whose conduct is disorderly (using inappropriate language, talking out of turn, using cellular phones and other electronic devices in class, etc.) will be reprimanded. At the instructor’s discretion, the student will be asked to leave the class, and the incident will be reported to Student Affairs.

• In the English Department and in this classroom, diversity of perspective is welcomed and celebrated. No forms of prejudice or discrimination will be tolerated, including those based on age, color, disability, gender, national origin, political affiliation, race, religion, sexual orientation, socio-economic status, or veteran status. We are here to learn in a climate of civility and mutual respect. To find out more about diversity, contact the Diversity Education Center at (509)963-1685 or see the website at: www.cwu.edu/~diversity/.

• Turn off and put away cellular phones and all other electronic devices for the duration of class. “Three Strikes” Cellular Phone Policy: strike one—student will sing his or her ringtone, strike two—student will surrender phone to instructor and lose points for the day, strike three—student will be expelled from class.

• Start assignments early. Each student will bring his/her papers to class workshops and, if he/she would like extra help, to the ARC: Writing Center before submitting it. Schedule an appointment: e-mail umwdesk@cwu.edu or call (509)963-1270.

• Turn in assignments on time. Late assignments will receive zero points—no exceptions. If a student knows he/she will miss class the day an assignment is due, turn the assignment in early to the English Department office in L&L 423 (must be stamped by secretary) or ask a trusted classmate to submit it in class and on time. An absence does not excuse a student from turning an assignment in on time. Technical difficulties, such as computer or printer problems, are not acceptable excuses.

• Academic dishonesty, in all of its forms, will not be tolerated and will be dealt with according to the professor’s discretion within the guidelines set forth by the University. The assignments each student submits must be his/her own original work. Any cases academic dishonesty (including but not limited to colluding, copying, and plagiarism in all of its forms) will result in a failing grade for the assignment and may result in a failing grade for the class. Quizzes and tests are not collaborative; ensure there is no semblance of collusion, copying, etc. Furthermore, violations of the university’s Student Rights & Responsibilities may be reported: (http://apps.leg.wa.gov/WAC/default.aspx?cite=106-120-027). See also the “Plagiarism” PowerPoint on Blackboard.

• Attend class. be on time, stay for the duration, and be prepared. No more than four absences of any kind are allowed. If a student misses more than four class meetings, he/she will retake the course next quarter. The instructor will close the door at the beginning of class and take roll. A student is considered late if he/she arrives after roll is called. Every two late arrivals equal one absence. If a student is severely tardy, more than five minutes late, he/she will be marked absent. If a student shows up to class unprepared (missing book, incomplete assignment, no pen/paper, etc.), he/she will be marked absent. If a student falls asleep, he/she will be marked absent.

- Each student will be held responsible for completing all work assigned while he/she is absent. If a student does miss class, do not contact the instructor to find out what was missed until speaking to at least one classmate and checking Blackboard. Points may be made up by completing available extra credit.
