Course Syllabus

English 100T.005—Fall 2014

Instructor: Melissa Brouwer
Email: mbrouwer@cwu.edu
Office: Library 188-D
Office Hours: MTW, 10:00-10:50
Class Time: 11-11:50 every MTWTh @ Dean 203

- We will meet in the Library ARC: Writing Center every Wednesday beginning on October 1.

Course Outcomes:

A. Reading Comprehension
   1. Recognize implicitly stated main ideas in paragraphs and essays
   2. Show how details are related to the main idea
   3. Recognize unstated assumptions

B. Fluency
   1. Use precise vocabulary
   2. Write clear and meaningful sentences and paragraphs within essays, strategically placing elements to provide clarity, cohesion, and focus

C. Coherence
   1. Link sentences within paragraphs and paragraphs within essays, strategically placing elements to provide clarity, cohesion, and focus
   2. Distinguish between thesis statements and development (e.g. reasons, illustrations, examples, details)

D. Proofreading
   1. Include correct punctuation, mechanics, and spelling
   2. Follow grammar conventions appropriate for an academic audience

E. Process
   1. Describe your own writing process
   2. Edit your work and the work of other students
Textbooks: (Required)

- Real Skills Interactive is a workbook. You must purchase a new copy of this book.
- Learning Curve interactive software will be included when you buy Real Skills Interactive. You will use Learning Curve to complete your grammar homework.

Attendance Policy:

Students will be allowed no more than four absences. No more than four absences will be excused. Period. This means that if you miss more than four classes (one week), you will need to repeat the class.

- Can I make up work if I miss a class?
  - Papers: Yes. Five points will be deducted from the final score on the paper each day it is late. It is best to email the paper to me on the due-date if you are going to be absent the day a paper is due. A hard-copy version of your paper is still required in this case.
  - Quizzes: No. Do extra credit.
  - Grammar Homework: No. Do extra credit.
  - Library Assignments: No. Do extra credit.
  - Peer Reviews: No. Do extra credit.
  - Journal: Yes. The prompts will be posted to Blackboard; if you miss a day or are tardy and miss the prompt, you may write the journal entry on your own time.
  - Midterm and final journal checks will not be accepted late.
  - Reading Logs: No. Do extra credit.

- What happens if a student has to miss a class for any reason?
  - You are expected to do extra credit to make up the points you miss. Deadlines will not be extended, and I will not re-teach the class just for you. You are expected to get class notes and assignments from a classmate or from the Blackboard page.
  - Papers are still due on the assigned days, even if you have an excused absence. You should either email the paper to me or send it to class with a classmate. Not coming to class does not get you out of turning in a paper on time. If you don’t submit a paper on time, five points will be deducted from the total score on the paper for each day it is late.

- What happens if a student misses more than four classes?
  - The student will fail the class.
What happens if a student arrives late to class?

- Tardiness is unacceptable behavior. This class starts on the hour, not ten minutes, fifteen minutes, or twenty minutes later. Every three instances of tardiness will be counted as one absence.

ADA Statement: If you need disability-related educational accommodations, please meet with me or contact the Center for Disability Services at (509) 963-1202 or DS@cwu.edu.

Grading Procedures:

- The main goal of English 100T is to prepare you for English 101. This class is graded on a Satisfactory (S)/Unsatisfactory (U) scale. To receive an S, you must earn at least 800 points (80%) out of the 1,000 points available for the course.
- If you do not submit a Compare/Contrast Reflection Paper, you will not pass the course, no matter how many points you have at the end of the quarter.

Canvas:

- All assignments will be posted on Canvas. Hard copy printouts will not be provided. It is your responsibility to check Canvas regularly and download your assignments.
- It is your responsibility to print grading rubrics for all writing assignments. You must submit a rubric with each paper you submit.
• You can check your grade in the class at any time by looking at the Canvas grade book. I will usually update the scores once a week (mostly on Fridays).

Words of Warning:

Plagiarism is against the university’s academic honesty policy. Any egregious (purposeful) plagiarism will result in disciplinary action. You will fail the class. Your name will be submitted to the University Disciplinary Committee. Your permanent record will be flagged. You will have to attend an academic integrity workshop. If you are caught plagiarizing more than once while you are a student at CWU, you will be expelled from the university.

Cell phones, laptops, iPads, iPods, MP3 players, and other electronic devices are banned in this class. You won’t need them in class in order to be successful. If you are caught using any banned electronics during class, you will be asked to turn in the banned device(s). You may reclaim them at the end of the class period. If you argue with me, you will be asked to leave, and you will be counted absent for the day.

• Let me know before class begins if you are expecting a phone call because of an emergency situation. Leave the room quietly to take the phone call. Return to class with as little distraction as possible.

Sleeping in class is prohibited. If you fall asleep in class, I will draw attention to you and let your classmates laugh at you.

Food and drink are allowed in class, but try to be reasonable about it, please. You may bring something to drink and a snack, but please don’t attempt to eat a full meal in class. Don’t bring anything so smelly that it will offend those sitting next to you (onions, sauerkraut, etc.).

Late papers will be accepted. However, five points will be deducted from the final grade on the paper for each day it is late.

• The Compare/Contrast Reflection Paper cannot be submitted late. Additionally, the final journal cannot be submitted late.
• All course work must be completed by the final assessment (date and time to be announced as soon as this information is available). No exceptions.
