- Learning Curve interactive software will be included when you buy Real Skills Interactive. You will use Learning Curve to complete your grammar homework.

Attendance Policy:

Students will be allowed no more than four absences and no more than four absences will be excused. Period. This means that if you miss more than four classes (one week), you will need to repeat the class.

- Can I make up work if I miss a class?
  - Papers: Yes. Five points will be deducted from the final score on the paper each day it is late. It is best to email the paper to me on the due-date if you are going to be absent the day a paper is due. If your paper is turned in late to Turnitin, you will be docked five points for every day it is late. Please see the General Paper Guidelines for more on this topic.
  - Quizzes: No. Do extra credit.
  - Grammar Practice: No. Do extra credit.
  - Peer Reviews: No. Do extra credit.
  - Journal: Yes. Get the Journal Make-up topic from Canvas and write the journal entry on your own time. Midterm and final journal checks will not be accepted late.
  - Reading Logs: No. Do extra credit.

- What happens if a student has to miss a class for any reason?
  - You are expected to do extra credit to make up the points you miss. Deadlines will not be extended, and I will not re-teach the class just for you. You are expected to get notes and assignment information from a classmate or from the Canvas page.
  - Papers are still due on the assigned days, even if you have an excused absence. You should either email the paper to me or send it to class with a classmate. Not coming to class does not get you out of turning in a paper on time. If you don’t submit a paper on time, five points will be deducted from the total score on the paper for each day it is late, including if it is late on Turnitin.
If you have a prolonged absence due to illness or family matters, please contact Student Success at 963-1515.

- What happens if a student misses more than four classes?
  - The student will fail the class.

- What happens if a student arrives late to class?
  - Tardiness is unacceptable behavior. This class starts promptly on the hour—not five minutes, ten minutes, or fifteen minutes after. Every three instances of tardiness will be counted as one absence.

Translation software is strictly prohibited in ENG 100T. See the handout from your instructor for more information.

Cell phones, laptops, iPads, iPods, MP3 players, and other electronic devices are banned in this class. You won’t need them in class in order to be successful. If you are caught using any banned electronics during class, you will be asked to turn in the banned devices. You may reclaim them at the end of the class period. If you argue with me, you will be asked to leave, and you will be counted absent for the day.

- Let me know before class begins if you are expecting a phone call because of an emergency situation. Leave the room quietly to take the phone call. Return to class with as little distraction as possible.

Sleeping in class is prohibited. If you fall asleep in class, I will say your name very loudly in the middle of lecture over and over until you wake up.

Food and drink are allowed in class, but try to be reasonable about it, please. You may bring something to drink and a snack, but please don’t attempt to eat a full meal in class. Don’t bring anything so smelly that it will offend those sitting next to you (onions, sauerkraut, etc.).

Late papers will be accepted. However, five points will be deducted from the final grade on the paper for each day it is late. You must submit a hardcopy and an electronic copy of your papers in order to receive a grade. I will not grade a paper if I only have an electronic version (and vice versa: I will not grade a paper if I only have a hardcopy and no electronic submission).

- The Compare/Contrast paper cannot be submitted late. Mid-term and final journal entries cannot be submitted late. All course work must be completed by the final day of class. No exceptions.
