Where are you going to live next year?

Central Washington University
2016–2017 residence hall reaplication
January 2016

Hi Wildcats!

‘Welcome home’ with your friends by choosing to live on campus for the 2016-2017 academic year. Students currently living on campus have the opportunity to choose their rooms in February for the 2016-2017 academic year. For our current first year students, remember that there are many different living options that may not have been offered when you first joined housing (i.e. Wendell Hill Hall, more suite style options, more single room opportunities, and apartments). Did you know that over 1,500 students chose to return to campus last year?

University Housing is excited to offer to current first year students that are returning for their second year with 36-90 credits a $1,000 housing waiver. This will be disbursed evenly over the fall, winter and spring quarters.

Students living on campus experience these benefits:

- Convenience to eat in the dining halls with several dining plan options.
- Convenience to participate in study groups and clubs, attend sporting events, theater productions, Open Mic Night and more.
- Twenty four hour on-call residence life staff, maintenance, and police department.
- Students living on campus are more likely to graduate.
- Statistics show us that CWU students that live on campus are more likely to have a higher GPA than those living off campus.
- There is one payment location for room and board with financial aid applying directly to the student account.

The procedure for choosing your room is easy and convenient. Simply check the schedule and/or lottery number to determine the appropriate time to go to cwu.edu/housing and follow the prompts given.

If you are interested in an LLC, please complete the questions on the tear out card and obtain the appropriate faculty/staff signature. Students will not be allowed to live in the LLC without this completed document. Bring the completed form into Button Hall or the Residence Life Office by noon on February 17, 2016.

Dining Services is excited about the opportunity to once again provide you a variety of convenient and attractive dining options around campus. All you have to do is check your meal plan preference on your room and board application, and you are ready to go. For more information, please go to dining services website at cwu.edu/dining.

Residence hall and dining rates are also being discussed at this time. The anticipated rates for the 2016-2017 academic year will increase approximately 5% from the current year. The rates will be published as soon as we have approval. Note that the rates for the new and renovated residence halls are higher than rates for our established residence halls.

Should you have any questions, please give us a call at 509-963-1831 or send an e-mail to housing@cwu.edu. If you have questions about the Living Learning Communities, please call the Residence Life Office at 509-963-1323.

Sincerely,

Richard DeShields

Procedures & Information

All Residents

All assignments will be made on the housing website at cwu.edu/housing by clicking on the residence hall reapplication link. To log into the reapplication screen, you will simply log on with MyCWU username and password.

All residence hall assignments are made in real time. If you currently live in an LLC area and will not participate in the LLC next year, you will not be able to live in the designated LLC area.

Choosing your room for next year is easy. Just follow these steps:

• If you wish to participate in an LLC or theme house, submit your application questions by noon on February 17, 2016.
• Check the schedule and lottery number to be sure you know the time you are eligible to sign up.
• Talk to your friends about the possibility of being a roommate. Students living in an LLC are allowed one non-LLC roommate.
• Sign into your MyCWU account on the appropriate date, and follow each step in the application process.
• That’s it. You are done!!!

Roommate Requests

If you have a roommate(s) request, please complete the roommate preference section. If you were requested as a roommate, you will also need to sign-up. You also have the option to decline the request. Whether you are requesting a student from off-campus or a current student on-campus as a roommate, the roommate’s contract needs to be received by April 1, 2016 at which time the space can no longer be reserved.

Lottery Number

All lottery numbers are on the housing website. Students are eligible to choose a room any time after the lottery number has been activated according to the posted schedule. If there are 2 or 3 students requesting to be roommates, the student with the first lottery number will be reserving the space for roommates. The requested roommates can accept or decline the invitation after their lottery number has activated.

If you have any questions, please call University Housing at 963-1831 or visit University Housing in Button Hall. cwu.edu/housing

Remember, you may go through this process once. If you wish to change rooms or roommates, you may do so beginning on Friday, February 25, 2016.

2016-2017 Application to Live and Participate in a Living Learning or Theme Community

Process
A student who plans to participate in a Living Learning or Theme Community must complete the following four steps.

1. You must be approved to return by the current faculty/staff member responsible for facilitating the Living Learning or Theme Community. This is indicated by getting a signature from the faculty/staff listed. Please plan ahead as this is not a primary responsibility of the faculty/staff members.

By gaining a signature and completing the application, you are agreeing to participate in Living Learning or Theme Community programs next year. Priority is given to students who are currently participating in the LLC and Theme Community. If you are not an active participant, you could be removed from the assigned community. We understand that there will be times throughout the year when this is difficult, and some flexibility is allowed.

2. On a separate piece of paper complete the application questions.

3. Submit to University Housing in Button Hall the signed authorization card with the faculty or staff signature, along with your completed response to the application questions by February 17, 2016.

4. If you have additional questions, contact Ian Miller, Assistant Director of Residence Life, at 509-963-1704, milleria@cwu.edu or University Housing and New Student Programs at 509-963-1323.

Application Questions
Please answer the following questions on a separate piece of paper. See steps 3 and 4 above.

1) Which LLC/Theme Community are you applying for and why?

2) What do you want to learn or get from living in the LLC/Theme Community?

3) How will you contribute to the LLC/Theme Community’s success?

4) How have you contributed to your LLC/Theme Community this year if you currently live in one?
