

MATHEMATICS EXIT SLIPS

EXIT Slips

Provide a written means for students to communicate mathematical learning, ideas, questions or summaries from a lesson or activity. They can be used by students for to summarize key concepts or big ideas, to provide examples and extend understanding, to extend applications of a concept in real world settings, or to identify any confusion on the topic.

(Source: www.adlit.org/strategies/19783)

They Key Idea in Today's Mathematics Lesson was:

Of the 3 Types of Graphs Studied Today, Which Is Most Useful for You and Why?

One Thing I Didn't Understand Today Was:
