When: Tuesday, May 1, 4-5 PM
Where: Science 2, room 103

For the past two years CWU alumnus Sergio Madrid ('15) has served as a literacy volunteer with the Peace Corps. In this presentation, Sergio will tell the story of why he chose to delay graduate studies to enter the Peace Corps, what he accomplished while living in the island nation of Vanuatu, and how he hopes to build on his Peace Corps journey now that he has returned. His presentation will be followed by a question and answer session.
