

Mentoring Topic

We're encouraging mentees to get to know their mentor by asking questions and sharing. To assist them we've provided questions to present to you, so they can begin to better understand your path to career success, and how to begin their own path to future career success. Here are the questions they were provided:

1. What is your favorite college memory?
2. Do you have a mentor? How have they influenced you?
3. What do you wish you knew at my stage?
4. What is the most valuable lesson you've learned from your career success?

What are Other Mentors and Mentees Doing?

Here's what Ryan and Jamar planned soon after being introduced in November: Share "WHY". Consider the difficulties of being a teacher (in this case, but whatever your mentee wants to be- CFO, publicist, consultant, engineer). Think about the pros and cons. Reflect on this and prepare to share "WHY" you want to become a _____.

Thank you Ryan, for giving the 'ok' to share what you and your mentee are doing!

Share, Advise, Coach

I just received this great read on mentoring (thanks for sharing, Michael!). Check out and consider sharing The 10 Commandments of Mentorship with your mentee:

Mark your Calendar! We are inviting mentors to campus for lunch and to share with students the struggles and successes of their academic and career paths at this year's Leadership Conference, which is focusing on 'resilience'. Mentors who attend will be seated with their mentees, along with other students.

10th Annual Leadership Conference, Thursday March 1

Round table lunch discussion on resilience and keynote address: 12 pm-1:30 pm

Please encourage your mentees to attend. Here's more about the conference, and

I hope you can join us for lunch! <http://www.cwu.edu/leadership-engage/node/2776/>

Join the CWU Professional Network LinkedIn Group! This is for mentees and mentors, as well as current and past students interested in sharing or receiving advice and making connections. Keep your eyes open for my invite to join the group, or add yourself, if you haven't already (must be logged in to use direct link): <https://www.linkedin.com/groups/13507300>
