SEXUAL SLAVERY IN THE WARTIME JAPANESE EMPIRE
The Historical Record and the Politics of Memory

APRIL 28, 2015
Central Washington University campus

7 PM • SURC BALLROOM
A PANEL OF CONCERNED SCHOLARS

Panelists will review the historical evidence about wartime sexual slavery and explore current struggles over historical memory, in the context of international attention to human rights, trafficking, and violence against women.

PANELISTS:
Dr. Bang-Soon Yoon Political Science, CWU
Dr. Chong Eun Ahn History, CWU
Dr. Anne Cubilié Douglas Honors College, CWU
Dr. Mark Auslander Museum of Culture & Environment, CWU
Dr. Yukiko Shigeto Foreign Languages and Literatures, Whitman College
Dr. Davinder Bhowmik Asian Languages and Literature, UW
Dr. Justin Jesty Asian Languages and Literature, UW

MODERATOR:
Dr. Stacey Robertson Dean, College of Arts and Humanities, CWU

KEYNOTE:
Dr. Bang-Soon Yoon Political Science, CWU
“Sex, State & Women’s Human Rights Movement: The “Comfort Women” Case

5:30 PM • SURC PIT
FILM: “THE BUTTERLIIES: FLYING HIGH WITH HOPE”

6 PM • SURC PIT
VOICES OF THE COMFORT WOMEN
Students will read victims’ testimonies about the “Comfort Women” system

Program sponsors:
Office of the Dean, College of Arts and Humanities
Women’s and Gender Studies Program
Department of World Languages
Asian and Pacific Islander Studies Program
Department of History
William O. Douglas Honors College
Department of Anthropology and Museum Studies
Museum of Culture and Environment
Department of Political Science

CWU is an AA/EEO/Title IX Institution. For accommodation, contact: auslanderm@cwu.edu