

Master in Education

Master Teacher Specialization

CWU-Moses Lake

A University in Your Community

Program Overview

The Master Teacher specialization is a graduate program for classroom teachers that leads to a Master's Degree in Education (M.Ed.). The program integrates advanced learning opportunities to increase the candidate's professional competence in serving K-12 students, school districts and the education profession.

Outcomes

The teacher-scholar attains the following attributes:

- ☞ A teacher-scholar who is a leader and/or a participating member of his/her school community;
- ☞ A teacher-scholar who forges new connections and fosters inquiry and research behaviors within students;
- ☞ A teacher-scholar who facilitates the culture of learning in K - 12 students;
- ☞ A teacher-scholar who reflects critically on professional issues and contributes, through independent analysis and research, to the professional knowledge base.

Requirements

The M.Ed. Master Teacher Program accepts students who have completed a bachelor's degree from an accredited institution, possess teacher certification, have a minimum 3.0 GPA for the last 90 credits or 60 semester credits of academic work, and have completed one year of contracted teaching.

Master Teacher Candidates will complete 45 credits as outlined in an approved Course of Study filed with the Office of Graduate Studies and Research. The development of a Course of Study most appropriate to the professional goals and purposes of each individual student is encouraged.

Students can transfer up to 9 credits (501 and higher) from an accredited institution. Credits sought for transfer must be graded "B" or better and must have been completed no more than six years prior to the date of the student's master's degree program completion.

Application

Master Teacher applicants must submit the following materials to CWU- Moses Lake:

1. A completed Admission Application.
2. A written Statement of Objectives (500 words or less).
3. Three (3) Letters of Recommendations written by professors or others capable of assessing your potential for success in a graduate program; one must be from a school principal.
4. Official Transcripts from all universities and colleges attended (other than CWU).
5. A non-refundable application fee of $50.00 payable at the time of filing application.
