Running Start Funding Limits
The student is responsible (not the high school or college) for maintaining a schedule that stays within the Running Start funding limits or the student agrees to pay all university costs incurred for exceeding the funding limit.

If the student enrolls for more university credits than allowed according the Running Start Funding Limit Table (on reverse), the student is responsible for:

- Paying all university costs associated with exceeding the limit
- Withdrawing from the excess university or high school course(s)
