

Course Prefix and Number		Soc 300 - Introduction to the Major
Learner Outcomes		Assessment
Determine personal education goals relevant to the Sociology/Social Services major and develop an action plan to complete major requirements.		In-class assignment. Faculty advisor and student will meet individually and determine if the action plan is satisfactory or needs revision.
Analyze professional resources and explore career goals and future educational options.		In-class and graded assignments; students will evaluate one another through peer evaluations
Develop research skills and assess information resources (e.g. literature searching, use of ASA format) that will facilitate success in future coursework.		Graded assignments; students will be encouraged to revise and resubmit assignment.
Synthesize course information in order to complete a professional growth plan.		Graded final assignment	