

Course Prefix and Number		Soc 446 - Sociology of Immigration
Learner Outcomes		Assessment
Student will be able to identify the factors that are part of the immigration process through the decades.		Student will take an exam and correctly identify the factors involved in the immigration process.
Student will identify the origin and background of the reasons behind immigration.		Students will take an exam and correctly identify the origin and background or the reasons for immigration.
Students will identify how the sociological and ethnic studies perspective addresses the issue of immigration.		Students will identify a term paper how the sociological and ethnic studies perspectives address the issue of immigration.	