

Course Prefix & Number SOC 301 – Introduction and History of Social Service Agencies

LEARNER OUTCOMES	ASSESSMENT
Demonstrate knowledge of basic concepts and terminology in the field of social service.	Students will take objective and essay tests in class where they will recognize and discuss concepts and terminology.
Put welfare policies in the US in historical perspective.	Students will take objective and essay tests in class where they will recognize and discuss historical trends and events in the field of social service.
Identify the relationship between social problems in the US and social services.	Students will take objective and essay tests in class where they will recognize and discuss connections between larger social problems and social service.
Be aware of trends and issues in the practice of social service.	Students will take objective and essay tests in class where they will recognize and discuss trends and issues in the practice of social service.
Have personal hands-on experience in a social service setting.	Students will complete 40 hours of service learning and write 5 reports reflecting on their service learning experience.