

Course Prefix & Number SOC 307 – Individual and Society

LEARNER OUTCOMES	ASSESSMENT
Students should demonstrate the ability to answer all the questions identified in the course study guides.	Four examinations covering the questions and problems identified in the course study guides.
Students will develop and deliver presentations to the class covering various aspects of the course material.	Instructor will listen to and engage students in a discussion of the material orally during their presentations.