

Course Prefix & Number SOC 331 – Sociology of Sport

LEARNER OUTCOMES	ASSESSMENT
Students will be able to identify the role of sport in American society as a social institution.	Students will complete a take-home exam identifying the role of sport in American society as a social institution.
Students will be able to identify the socio-historical development of sport in American society.	Students will complete a take-home exam identifying the socio-historical development of sport in American society.
Students will be able to critically assess the functioning and structure of sport in the modern age.	Students will complete a take-home exam correctly identifying the critiques of sport in American society.