

National Student Employment Week Department Decorating Contest

Show your support for CWU's Student Employees by decorating your department's office! Decorations should show creative appreciation of your student employees and must be displayed in your department. Judging takes place on Monday, April 10th as part of National Student Employment Week (April 10 - 14).

Guidelines & Requirements:

Show us your creative talent!

Decorations must be completed and ready for judging by Monday, April 10th.

Selection Criteria:

- Creativity – Is there a creative, imaginative element in the office decorations?
- Cohesiveness – Do the decorations go together in an overall theme?
- Organization – Are the office decorations well-thought out and well-executed?
- Appreciation – Do the decorations show appreciation for all of the office's students?
- Overall look – Is the overall look visually appealing?.

Please note that additional materials will not be considered.

The information you provide may be shared with the public through press releases and other promotional opportunities.

Please note: Participating offices will be photographed on the day of judging and may be displayed on CWU Student Employment website and social media accounts.

To enter, email this form to Kathy at kjohnson@cwu.edu no later than Friday, March 31st.

When completed, please email the nomination form to kjohnson@cwu.edu.
