Executive Board Report:

- Chair: Olivia Durham

Winter Warmup was last week and it turned out amazingly, Hannah really did a great job of organizing all of the details. I went to MEChA's meeting and we had an incredible discussion about Sakuma and Driscoll's berries and what we're going to be doing to address that as a growing issue on campus. Our office is having a discussion of the Veteran's Memorial this Wednesday in the ASCWU office at 6pm, and we're having our open house this Friday from 10:30-1:00.

- Executive Assistant: Morgan Leblanc

We've been working hard on the Winter Warmup and making sure that the office stays orderly. Other than that we're discussing what we're going to be doing next this quarter.

Community Programmer: Hannah Barclay

Winter Warm up went amazingly and we had a great amount of donations. We received over ten large bags full of coats, gloves, hats, shirts, pants, and more. I've been speaking more with Hearthstone, and they want 5-10 people that are willing to help make and decorate Valentine's Day Cookies with the residents. These will count as civic engagement hours.

- Advisor: Michelle Cyrus

I would like to start by reminding all of you to get your funding requests and food justifications in for your future programs as soon as you can. The process can take a long time and it's better to get it done now than later. All of the funds request packets and information is available online, including a sample wrap up report. If you are not sure how to do something feel free to ask me or Olivia and we will be glad to help. Also, reserve your spaces soon. If they're not full yet they are going to be soon. Tomorrow night we have Breaking Beauty at 7:30 in SURC 137A/B. On Wednesday we'll be watching a Diversity film and on the 28th we'll be watching The Rosa Parks Story at 6:30 in Black 151.

Org Reports:

- BSU

We're having Afro-Infusion which is a celebration of worldwide afro-culture. We need volunteers for it this Friday to help prepare for the event on February 12th. If you want to help email me at masonl@cwu.edu.

- FASA

We just had our meeting to vote in our new Culture Chair and it went very well.

- EQuAL

We're going to be starting our Drag Bingo program this Thursday at 6pm in the SURC Theater. We'll have a famous Seattle Drag performer out to host and it will cost one dollar per ticket. Other than that we're starting to have recurring Coffee chats at the 1891 bistro, and they have gone wonderfully so far.

- MEChA

We spoke about how the people within our community have been exploited, mistreated, and not paid adequately in regards to Sakuma and Driscoll's berry workers. We're planning an on campus boycott and are trying to spread awareness of the issue through social media and tabling. We are going to nationals in Arizona this March and are about to submit a funds request for it. We've also been discussing tamale sales that we're planning on doing in the near future for fundraising

- ABLE

We're getting really excited about disability education programs we have coming up that are meant to educate students on campus about different disabilities and the disability services that are available to them.

- FGSO

We just finished our meeting and we've been working on educating our members about micro-aggressions and how we can avoid them. We've also been talking about why we have a lack of male transfer students of color here at Central. We've also already started or volunteering for the quarter.

- AUAP

We had AUAP night last Thursday and our students will be leaving in 12 days so we're just preparing the last meetings and get-togethers before they go back to Japan.

Old Business:

- AUAP Wrap-up Report

Our goals were to bring together AUAP students and the friends they have made so far. It went smoothly and many of our goals were met. It was obvious how much it meant to the Japanese students and how much “buzz” it created within their classes. There were a couple small hiccups, but it did not affect the nature of the night.

New Business:
