PLANNING NOTES

- This document does not substitute meeting with your advisor. See the current Skagit Valley College (SVC) catalog for complete degree requirements.
- Transfer to the Theatre Arts-General Studies program at CWU with the Skagit Valley College Associate in Arts University and College Transfer Direct Transfer Agreement (DTA). You can complete transfer equivalencies towards your bachelor's degree while completing the requirements for the DTA.
- Students may transfer a maximum of 135 total credits from regionally accredited four-year universities, including a maximum of 105 credits from regionally accredited community colleges.
- CWU Transfer Policies and Course Equivalencies can be found at www.cwu.edu/registrar/transfer-equivalencies-policies.
- Work with an SVC advisor to ensure proper course sequencing for the DTA and Theatre Arts-General Studies major. Refer to the SVC Associate in Arts University and College Transfer degree planning guide for course selection and GPA required for graduation.
- Apply for admission to Central Washington University at www.cwu.edu/admissions. Visit your CWU advisor early in your academic career to find out if you are eligible for dual admission. Find application and guidelines at www.cwu.edu/admissions/dual-admission.
- Include official or unofficial transcripts from ALL institutions you have attended. Once your DTA is posted, have an official copy of your final transcript sent to Admissions.
- Students seeking a BA degree must complete one year of college/university study or two years of high school study of a single foreign language.
- A cumulative GPA of 2.7 in the pre-admission requirement courses must be achieved with a minimum grade of C+ (2.3) in each course.
- For students considering transferring after one year at Skagit Valley College, these are general education courses suggested to be completed prior to entrance into the Theatre Arts program.
- These courses are not established equivalencies with CWU; please see your CWU advisor for substitution form.
