

BLACK GIRL GROOVES

EMBODYING & ACTIVATING OUR RESISTANCE

FEATURING

DR. DOMINIQUE C. HILL

Dr. Hill is a qualitative researcher, body activation and vulnerability guide, whose scholarship interrogates Black embodiment and excavates knowledge generated from queer resistance, girlhood, and carceral navigation.

PRE REGISTRATION

REQUIRED FOR ALL EVENTS

SIGN UP HERE: linktr.ee/DiversityCWU

(Workshops limited to 20 participants)

Meet Dr. Hill and engage in conversations about embodying and activating our resistance.

(Informal Student Chat)
Feb 11, 2021 2:00-3PM

I am not Wrong, I am Poetry - Feminist Theory workshop
Feb 18, 2021 5:00-6:30 PM

Some (Damn) Body" - Movement Workshop
Feb 25, 2021 5:00-6:30 PM

Don't Touch My Hair: Carcerality, Schools, and BlackGxrl Embodiment (Public Talk)

Mar 4, 2021 5:30 PM