

CAH STUDENT EVENT MINI-GRANT
COVER SHEET

The College of Arts and Humanities (CAH) Dean's Office will fund one mini-grant of $750 to help support an event organized by one or more CAH students. The event should have appeal to a broad audience of students, faculty, staff and community members. The idea for this mini-grant came from the CAH Dean's Council of Students, and we intend to make this funding available each year.

Eligibility: Any CAH student or CAH student organization/club may apply for this mini-grant. The event must occur in winter or spring quarter 2009.

To Apply: Submit this cover sheet; a one-page description of your event and how it will benefit the campus community; a budget for the event, indicating all sources of funding; and plans for publicity.

Deadline: Application materials should be submitted to the CAH Dean's office by Friday 12, December.
