

CENTRAL WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY

ENGLISH

General Departmental Information

Study in the English department helps students better understand and appreciate the English language and its literature. The department offers undergraduate and graduate work in American, British, and World Literature, in English Language Studies, in English Education, and in Writing. Work in English leads to greater skill in communication, and since literature is about people, a better understanding and appreciation of it can lead to a better understanding and appreciation of them. Study in English is an excellent preparation for a wide range of careers.

Degrees, Specializations, Minors & Certifications

Bachelors degrees are offered in English, English Teaching, and Language Arts Teaching. Minors are offered in English, Teaching English, and Creative Writing.

Career Opportunities

A career in any field, be it law, business, engineering, or medicine, may be enhanced with a major or minor in English. Graduates of our programs go on to professional and graduate school, become editors, teach public or private school in the United States or foreign countries, work as publishers, and technical writers, and use their communication skills to contribute to their communities.

Departmental Honors in English

The honors program in English recognizes the superior scholarship of those students who are able to complete successfully an advanced individual study and writing project. To qualify for the program, students must have completed 25 credits in their major, have an overall GPA of 3.0 and 3.4 in English, and be recommended by three faculty members, including two from the department of English.
