

CENTRAL WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY

History

General Departmental Information

The faculty of History offers courses leading to the degrees of Bachelor of Arts and Master of Arts. Majors who desire to graduate with honors should consult the history honors director on the special requirements. Students who declare a major in History must register with the Department.

History Honors Program

Qualified students are urged to enter the History Department's honors program. To qualify for the program, students must complete 25 credits in their major and have an overall GPA of 3.0 and 3.25 in history. Honors students will complete the following requirements: 1. an elective course in addition to those required for their major in an area of concentration (United States, Europe, or Non-Western) 2. a year of coursework in one departmentally- approved foreign language at an accredited college or university. If it is the same language as that taken in high school, the student must complete the course work at the 200 level. 3. an honors research paper (25 page minimum) completed during HIST 481. A faculty committee will judge whether the paper meets departmental standards for honors.

History Major

It is recommended that students who plan to enter graduate school should complete two years of a foreign language at the college level.

History: Teaching Broad Area Major

This major satisfies the Primary endorsements for History and Social Studies. This major is designed for students in the secondary teacher training program. Students taking this major are required to complete the professional education program requirements offered through the Curriculum and Supervision Department.
