

Central Washington University
Retirement Association
Annual Report
2003-2004

2003-2004 Board Members

Past President	Fred Cutlip
President	Ross Byrd
President-elect	Greg Trujillo
Secretary	Jean Cutlip	Treasurer	Don Ringe
Active Classified	Linda Rubio	Retired Faculty	Dale Comstock
Active Faculty	David Shorr	Retired Classified	Dodie Haight
Ex Officio	Jen Gray	Legislative Rep	Bob Edington

CWURA remains solvent ($18,112 in several accounts, including $13,747 in an endowment fund), thanks to an annual budget from CWU ($1,000 in recent years) and not yet including the TIAA-CREF annual grant ($1,500) initiated in 2003-04 in support of mailings to retirees.

‘Special Thanks’ to:

- *Our webmaster (who wishes to remain anonymous) for the great CWURA web page! (Compare with the other retirement associations’ web pages to see how good it really is!)
- *Retirees who share their travel experiences via the CWURA newsletter
- *Ham Howard for his never-ending supply of great limericks for the newsletters

Regularly scheduled events/activities:

- *Board meetings: Third Thursday each month, 7:30 a.m.
- *First Friday Coffees at Sweet Memories: Monthly
- *Three 8-10 page newsletters annually plus special summer flyer

Special events during 2003-2004:

- *August 4: Seventh Annual Senior Open Golf Tournament
- *October 9: Darwin Goodey “The Indians Discover Lewis and Clark”
- *October 16: Maryhill Museum visitation
- *Oct 29/Nov 1 and Apr 29/May 1: AAA Driver Improvement Program for Mature Drivers
- *December 4: CWURA members served as ‘greeters’ for CWU Holiday Party
- *February 5: Martha Duskin-Smith et al. “Cultural Heritage Archive and Museum Project”
- *March 16: New CWU retirees reception in Barge
- *April 22: Yakima Valley Wine Country Tour
- *May 25: Annual Membership/Business Meeting, Dinner, and Meghan Miller and Charlie Rubin, “Earthquake Hazards: Alaska and the Pacific Northwest”
- *August 9: Eighth Annual Senior Open Golf Tournament
- *September 25: Battle in Seattle
- *October 3-6: UW Fall Festival, Seaside, OR
- *October 21: Tacoma Art Museum, Museum of Glass, and Washington State History

Museum

- *November: Beverly Heckart, “Faculty Morale, 1960-2000”

And, What's New?

*CWURA Graduate Student Scholarship, $1,000 annually: Don Ringe, Chair (Retirees' tax-deductible contributions are encouraged! Merely make checks payable to CWU Foundation for the CWURA Graduate Scholarship.)
*CWU Cultural Archives 'Study Group:' Anne Denman, Chair

And, as Fred stated in last year's Annual Report: Thanks to the efforts of so many people, we are alive and thriving.