

- 1) Mr. John Eckles, the president of a college
- 2) Gamma rays and Beta particles.
- 3) a man who threw away a drinking cup
- 4) a highly accurate pendulum clock
- 5) “If the funeral men are loath to discuss the subject outside the trade, the reader may, understandably, be equally loath to go on reading at this point.”
- 6) “The newly developed science of artificial intelligence aims at programming the computer to think, reason and react in much the same way that people do.”
- 7) The reverie
- 8) B. & G. Products Company’s Lyf-Lyk tint
- 9) a study to show that the best bait for mice is cheese
- 10) The city of Corinth
- 11) “Dr. Kendall, an expert on the consequences of nuclear attacks
- 12) Joel Bion, a sophomore at Stanford
- 13) “You're blocking the sunlight.”
- 14) the kind of thought “that has raised man from his . . . pristine, subsavage ignorance . . . to the degree of knowledge and comfort which he now possesses.”
- 15) why always having “good light” may not be wise