

Casa LATINA

Central Washington University

mi casa SU casa...

Central Washington University is proud to announce a unique living option available for first-year students and above.

Casa Latina is a multicultural Living Learning Community (LLC) open to all students who share an interest in Latina/o heritage and culture.

All interested students are encouraged to apply.

Casa Latina offers a common academic experience through a variety of social and cultural events, mentoring and support programs, and community outreach activities.

Students will enroll in a required Latino and Latin American Studies course (LLAS102).

The Latino and Latin American Studies Program, College Assistance Migrant Program (CAMP), Bridges Project, Communication Department, and University Housing & New Student Programs are coordinating this program.
