

If you like to sing and are male – this announcement is for you!

Announcing the formation* of the CWU Men's Choir!

The group will be conducted by brand new Director of Choral Studies, Dr. Gary Weidenaar. He comes to Central from Northern Arizona University, where he directed a similar group.

The Central Men's Chorale will sing a wide variety of music, from classical to spirituals, from renaissance to Broadway and more!

Here's the information:

WHAT: CWU MEN'S CHORALE

WHO: Anyone who likes to sing (experienced or not) may join, student or faculty/staff. It is considered a club, but may be taken for credit if you wish (see Dr. W about that)

WHEN: from 7-9pm on Monday nights – first rehearsal Sept. 25

WHERE: The choir room (room 153) in the music building

HOW to join: Simply call Dr. W at 963 1616, or show up at the first rehearsal

FINAL THOUGHT: If you read this far, make the plunge and call Dr. W. You are welcome to try the group for a couple rehearsals – if after that you decide it's not for you, no problem and no pressure! Also, if you know of a friend who might be interested, please let them know about the Men's Chorale.

(*It's actually a re-formation. Central has had a similar group in the past)
