

2-2.22

LEGISLATIVE REPRESENTATION

(1) Because of the significance to Central Washington University of adequate and appropriate representation of its interests to the Washington State legislature and because of the importance of such relationships, no person shall undertake to represent or make representation to any legislature, legislators, legislative committees or the legislature as a whole on behalf of the president, the trustees and Central Washington University without the specific written approval of the president of the university.

(2) Those persons designated legislative liaisons for Central Washington University are required to report quarterly to the public disclosure commission per RCW 42.17.190, q.v. This reporting is coordinated by the public records officer.

[PAC: 7/91]