

Chapter 106-120 WAC Student Conduct Code

106-120-003 Purpose

The students of Central Washington University are responsible for complying with policies, standards, rules, and requirements for academic and social behavior formulated by the University for the maintenance of an orderly and responsible functioning of the University community. Students enrolled at any of the University's campuses are expected to uphold these standards both on and off campus. At the same time, students have protection through orderly procedures against arbitrary or capricious actions or decisions by University authorities. Due process is recognized as essential to the proper enforcement of University rules. The purpose of this document is to provide a procedure and rules by which a student will be afforded due process in the matter of alleged violations of University standards, rules and requirements governing academic and social conduct of students.

The University recognizes a responsibility to resolve behavior problems before they escalate into serious problems requiring the application of these rules. Therefore, the Vice President shall generally review and/or investigate student behavioral problems which are referred by University community members or any subsidiary conduct agencies to the Student Conduct Council, or which otherwise come to the attention of the Vice President through the office of Public Safety and Police Services or other official University reports. The Vice President and the Problem Solving Team shall be as proactive as possible concerning the resolution of student behavioral problems and use reasonable arbitration and conflict resolution methods in order to prevent such problems from further interfering with the University community or the student's own education progress.

106-120-004 Definitions

1. "University" shall mean Central Washington University.
2. "Vice President" shall mean the Vice President for Student Affairs and Enrollment Management of the University or the Vice President's designee.
3. "Student" shall mean a person enrolled at the University either full or part-time, pursuing undergraduate, graduate, or extension studies, or a person accepted for admission or readmission to the University.
4. "University community" shall include the employees and students of Central Washington University and all property and equipment of the University.
5. "Hazing" shall include any method of initiation into a student organization or living group, or any pastime or amusement engaged in with respect to such an organization or living group that causes, or is likely to cause, bodily danger or physical harm, or serious mental or emotional harm, to any student or other person attending Central Washington University. The term does not include customary athletic events or other similar contest or competitions.
6. "Sexual Assault" occurs when the act is intentional and is committed either by:
 - (a) physical force, violence, threat, or intimidation;
 - (b) ignoring the objections of another person;
 - (c) causing another's intoxication or impairment through the use of alcohol or drugs; or
 - (d) taking advantage of another person's incapacitation, state of intimidation, helplessness, or other inability to consent.
7. "Sexual Misconduct" occurs when an act is committed without intent to harm another and where, by failing to correctly assess the circumstances, a person mistakenly believes that effective consent was given and did not meet his/her responsibility to gain effect consent.

8. "Sexual Harassment" is defined as unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature. More specifically, sexually harassing behavior includes the following:
 - (a) gender harassment, including sexist statements and behavior that convey insulting, degrading, or sexist attitudes;
 - (b) seductive behavior encompassing unwanted, inappropriate, and offensive physical or verbal sexual advances;
 - (c) sexual bribery, involving solicitation of sexual activity or other sex-linked behavior by promise of reward;

9. "Stalking" is a legal term for repeated harassment or other forms of invasion of a person's privacy in a manner that causes fear to its target. Stalking may include such acts as repeated following; unwanted contact (by letter or other means of communication); observing a person's actions closely for an extended period of time; or contacting family members, friends, or associates of a target inappropriately.
10. Burden of Proof: In determining whether sufficient cause exists, the burden of proof shall be on the University which must establish, by a preponderance of the evidence, that the student is responsible for a violation of the student conduct code. For the purpose of this code, the phrase, "preponderance of the evidence," means that it is more likely that the student charged violated the student code by engaging in the conduct for which he/she is charged than that he/she did not.

106-120-005 Provision for due process .

The Vice President shall provide for due process for students throughout the behavioral problem solving intervention by following the proper steps related to the initiation, investigation, and disposition of complaints against a student as outlined in WAC 106-120-131 of this document.

106-120-006 Students subject to student conduct code.

Any student is subject to these rules, independent of any other status the individual may have with the University. Any action taken against a student under these rules shall be independent of other actions taken by virtue of another relationship with the University in addition to that of the student.

The Student Conduct Code shall apply to a student's conduct, even if the student withdraws from school, while a disciplinary matter is pending.

106-120-007 Cooperation with law enforcement agencies.

Central Washington University distinguishes its responsibility for student conduct from the controls imposed by the larger community beyond the University, and of which the University is a part. When students are charged with violations of laws of the nation or state, or ordinances of the county or city, the University will neither request nor agree to special consideration for students because of their status as students, but the University will cooperate with law enforcement agencies, courts, and any other agencies in programs for rehabilitation of students.

University disciplinary proceedings may be initiated against a student charged with conduct that potentially violates both the criminal law and this Student Code (that is if both possible violations result from the same factual situation) without regard to the pendency of civil or criminal arrest and prosecution. Proceedings under this Student Code may be carried out prior to, simultaneously with, or following civil or criminal proceedings. University proceedings are not subject to challenge or dismissal referencing, as a basis, that criminal charges involving the same incident have been dismissed or reduced. Determinations made or sanctions imposed under this Student Code shall not be subject to change because criminal charges arising out of the same facts giving rise to violation of University rules were dismissed, reduced, or resolved in favor of or against the criminal law defendant. The University is not bound by the rules of evidence observed by courts in this state and may exclude incompetent, irrelevant, immaterial and unduly repetitious evidence.

106-120-021 Student Conduct Council

The Student Conduct Council shall be the principal campus-wide conduct body with jurisdiction over all students, whether graduate or undergraduate, and student organizations and authority to hear all charges of misconduct. It has authority to impose the sanctions described in WAC 106-120-028.

106-120-022 Subsidiary judicial agencies

Other divisions of the University may elect to establish subsidiary conduct agencies over which the Student Conduct Council will have appellate jurisdiction. Subsidiary conduct agencies or persons levying sanctions should devise sanctions which are in proportion to both the nature and extent of the misconduct, and which redress injury, damage, expense, inconvenience and/or grievance as far as possible. Appeal from subsidiary councils or agencies must be made within five (5) working days from the time of publication of findings by said subsidiary conduct agency. Failure to file such an appeal will constitute and be construed as full acceptance by all parties of the findings.

2. Disciplinary Probation. Formal action specifying the conditions under which a student may continue to be a student at the University including limitation of specified activities, movement, or presence on the CWU campus, including restricted access to any University building. The conditions specified may be in effect for a limited period of time or for the duration of the student's attendance at the University.

Such petitions must state reasons which either provides new evidence concerning the situation which resulted in the suspension, or demonstrate that earlier readmission is in the best interest of the student and the University. Approval for such readmission must be given by the Vice President or by the Student Conduct Council.

Students who have been suspended and whose suspension upon appeal is found to have been unwarranted shall be provided full opportunity to reestablish their academic and student standing to the extent possible within the abilities of the University, including an opportunity to retake examinations or otherwise complete course offerings missed by reason of such action.

106-120-131 Initiation, investigation and disposition of complaints

1. Philosophy

The Problem Solving Team deals with student behaviors which constitute violations of this Code. The Problem Solving Team meets weekly to review Residence Hall Incidents Reports filed by Resident Assistants and Building Managers, as well as Police Reports, which deal with both on- and off- campus students.

The Problem Solving Team works together to suggest intervention strategies which are considered to be most appropriate and effective for eliminating specific negative student behaviors. The Problem Solving Team is chaired by the Assistant to the Vice President for Student Affairs and includes representatives from Public Safety and Police Services, University Housing and New Student Programs, Center for Student Empowerment, Counseling Services, International Studies and Programs, and the Wildcat Wellness Center.

2. Process

Incidents that come to the attention of the Problem Solving Team may be addressed in one of the following ways:

- a) no action;
- b) informal meetings with relevant University officials;
- c) referral to the Residence Hall Arbitration Council, for resolving certain disputes within the residence halls;
- d) initiate proceedings in the office of the Vice President for Student Affairs and Enrollment Management.

Official proceedings in the Vice President's office are conducted when it becomes apparent to the Problem Solving Team that the initial and more informal forms of intervention with a student have been unsuccessful in positively modifying a student's behavior.

3. Investigation and Disposition of Complaints

The following rules will govern the processing of alleged violations of the proscribed conduct listed in the Student Conduct Code, with one exception. Allegations of discrimination, including sexual harassment, will utilize a separate process in order to provide both parties their rights under the law and in accordance with Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972. Copies of the Discrimination Grievance Process are available in the office of the Vice President for Student Affairs and Enrollment Management .

- a) A complaint alleging misconduct related to this Student Conduct Code may be filed by anyone and reported to the office of the Vice President for Student Affairs and Enrollment Management. The report should be in standardized written form. Students, faculty members, administrators and other employees of the University shall have concurrent authority to request the commencement of the disciplinary proceedings provided for in this chapter. A person filing a complaint shall be complainant of record and should file the complaint as soon as possible or within 20 work days.
- b) Any student charged in a complaint shall receive written notification from the Vice President. Such notice shall:
 - 1) inform the student that a complaint has been filed alleging that the student violated specific provisions of the Student Conduct Code and the date of the violation(s);
 - 2) set forth those provisions allegedly violated;
 - 3) specify a time and date the student is required to meet with the Vice President or designee; and
 - 4) inform the student that failure to appear at the appointed time at the Vice President's office may subject the student to suspension from the University.
- c) When the Vice President meets with the student, the Vice President shall:
 - 1) provide for the student a copy of the Student Conduct Code;
 - 2) review the alleged violation with the student; and
 - 3) conduct an investigation into the alleged violation.
- d) Upon completion of the review with the student and/or the investigation, the Vice President may:
 - 1) drop the charges when they appear to be invalid, without substance or capricious;
 - 2) issue a verbal warning;
 - 3) apply any of the sanctions as outlined in Section IV if such sanction is warranted by the evidence;
 - 4) refer the case to the Student Conduct Council; or
 - 5) invoke the summary suspension procedure as outlined in Section VII when deemed appropriate.

- e) The Vice President shall inform the student that only suspension and expulsion sanctions may be appealed to the Student Conduct Council, and that if an appeal is made, the Vice President shall take no action nor make any determination, except for summary suspension, in the matter other than to inform the student of the time, date, and location of the proceeding by the Student Conduct Council.

106-120-132 Procedures for proceeding before the student conduct council

1. When a case is referred to the Student Conduct Council, the Vice President shall forward to the Council:
 - a) a statement describing the alleged misconduct;
 - b) the name and address of the complainant;
 - c) the name and address of the student charged; and
 - d) all relevant facts and statements including unofficial transcripts.
2. The Vice President shall call a special meeting of the Council and arrange for a proceeding in the following manner:
 - a) The Vice President shall determine the time and place of the proceeding, which shall be at least five (5) working days after delivery of written notice to the student. In the interest of timeliness and efficiency, upon the request of either the student or the Vice President, this five working day interval may be waived by the Vice President, with the student's permission. Time and place shall be set to make the least inconvenience for all interested parties.
 - b) The members of the Council shall be selected by the Vice President from the list of students and faculty appointed to the Council based on their ability to attend the scheduled hearing. The proceedings board will consist of three students and two faculty members; and if possible, one student and one faculty will serve as alternates. Faculty and student members may be substituted for each other when faculty or student members are not available. A chair will be selected from the group assigned for each hearing and will preside over that meeting acting as the official representative of the committee.
 - c) No case shall be heard unless all the hearing board is present, unless approved by the appealing student.
 - d) All cases will be heard de novo, whether the case is an appeal from a subsidiary conduct body or is heard as an original complaint.
3. The Student Affairs and Enrollment Management secretary shall send written notice by email and mail of the proceeding to the student's last known address. Certified mail may be used, if appropriate. The notice shall contain:
 - a) a statement of the date, time, place and nature of the proceeding;
 - b) a list of witnesses who will appear, to the extent known; and
 - c) a summary description of any documentary or other physical evidence that would be presented by the University.
4. The student shall have all authority possessed by the University to obtain information he/she specifically describes in writing and tenders to the Vice President no later than two (2) working days prior to the proceeding or to request the presence of witnesses, or the production of other evidence relevant to the proceeding. However, the University shall not be liable for information requested by the student or the presence of any witnesses when circumstances beyond the control of the University prevent the obtaining of such information or the attendance of such witnesses at the proceeding.
5. Proceedings will ordinarily be held in closed session unless the proceeding board determines there is a compelling reason for the proceeding to be open, or the student requests an open proceeding. A closed proceeding shall include only members of the proceeding board, Vice President, persons directly involved in the proceeding as parties and persons called as witnesses.
6. The proceeding shall be audio tape recorded, and the tape shall be on file at the office of the Vice President for a period of three years.

7. The University shall be represented by the Vice President who shall present the University's case against the student.
8. The student must represent himself or herself. The student may be accompanied by counsel, or another third party, who may offer advice. If the student utilizes an attorney as advisor, the student must give the Vice President two (2) working days notice of intent to do so. If the student elects to be advised by an attorney, the Vice President may elect to have the University advised by an Assistant Attorney General.
9. The Council Chair shall insure that:
 - a) the proceeding is held in an orderly manner giving full care that the rights of all parties to a full, fair and impartial proceeding are maintained;
 - b) the charges and supporting evidence or testimony shall be presented first, and that there is full opportunity for the accused student to challenge the testimony and/or evidence, and to cross examine appropriately;
 - c) the student charged shall next present evidence or testimony to refute the charge, and that there is full opportunity for the accuser to challenge testimony and/or evidence, and to cross examine appropriately; and
 - d) only those materials and matters presented at the proceeding will be considered as evidence. The presiding officer shall exclude incompetent, irrelevant, immaterial, and unduly repetitious evidence.
10. Any person disruptive of the proceeding or any other procedure described in this document shall be excluded from the process by the Chair of the Student Conduct Council or by the Vice President using such means as are necessary to ensure an orderly process. Any student engaging in such interference shall be in contempt and may be summarily suspended from the University by the Student Conduct Council or the Vice President immediately. The student shall be subject to a suspension or any lesser sanction as may be determined by the Student Conduct Council or the Vice President at the time the interference takes place or within fifteen (15) working days thereafter.
11. The student has a right to a fair and impartial proceeding, but the student's failure to cooperate with or attend a proceeding shall not preclude the Council from making its finding of facts, conclusions, and recommendations. Failure by the student to cooperate may be taken into consideration by the Student Conduct Council and the Vice President in deciding the appropriate disciplinary action.
12. Upon conclusion of the proceeding, the proceeding board in closed session shall consider all the evidence presented and decide by majority vote to exonerate the student or to impose one of the sanctions authorized by this document.
13. The student shall be provided with a copy of the board's findings of fact and conclusions regarding whether the student did violate any rule or rules of the Student Conduct Code and the board's decision as to the appropriate sanction to be imposed.
14. If a student charged with misconduct under this Code has been charged with a crime for the same act or closely related acts by federal, state, or local authorities, or if it appears that such criminal charge is under consideration, the Student Conduct Council may postpone action on the complaint until there has been a disposition of the criminal charge or of the consideration of filing such charge. However, prior to action by other agencies, the Council may proceed to hear and decide the case if in the judgment of the Council, the nature of the alleged misconduct and the circumstances surrounding it pose a serious risk to the health or well being of the student or other members of the University. If there is a determination of guilt by the Council and if the subsequent criminal proceedings result in a judgment of acquittal, the student may petition the Student Conduct Council for a rehearing.

106-120-143 Summary Suspension Proceedings

The Vice President may summarily suspend any student from the University pending investigation, action or prosecution of charges of an alleged proscribed conduct violation or violations, if the Vice President has reason to believe that the student's physical or emotional safety and well-being, or the safety and well-being of other University community members, or the protection of property requires such suspension.

1. If the Vice President finds it necessary to exercise the authority to summarily suspend a student, the Vice President shall:
 - a) give to the student an oral or written notice of intent to determine if summary suspension is an appropriate action;
 - b) give an oral or written notice of the alleged misconduct and violation(s) to the student;
 - c) give an oral or written explanation of the evidence in support of the charge(s) to the student;
 - d) determine a time for the summary suspension proceeding to be held within two (2) working days;

 - f) Give an oral or written explanation of the summary suspension which may be imposed on the student.
2. At the place and time designated for the summary suspension proceeding, the Vice President shall:
 - a) consider the evidence relating specifically to the probability of danger to the student, to others on the campus, or to property;
 - b) provide the student with an opportunity to show why continued presence on campus does not constitute a danger to the physical and emotional well-being of self or others, or a danger to property;
 - c) give immediate oral notice of the decision to the student, followed by written notice;
 - d) if summary suspension is warranted, summarily suspend the student for no more than fifteen (15) working days with a Student Conduct Council proceeding of the allegations to have commenced by the end of the suspension period.
3. If a student has been instructed by the Vice President to appear for summary suspension proceedings and then fails to appear at the time designated, the Vice President may suspend the student from the University, and shall give written notice of suspension to the student at the student's last address of record on file with the University.
4. During the period of summary suspension, the suspended student shall not enter the campus of the University other than to meet with the Vice President. However, the Vice President may grant the student special permission for the express purpose of meeting with faculty, staff, or students in preparation for a proceeding before the Student Conduct Council.

Good Samaritan Policy.

The welfare of our students is of the highest importance to Central Washington University. There will be times when individuals, both on and off campus, may be in critical need of assistance from medical or other professional person. Central wants to minimize any hesitation that students or student organizations might have in obtaining help due to concern that their own behavior might be a violation of University policy.

While policy violations cannot be overlooked, the University will take into consideration the positive impact of reporting an incident on the welfare of students when determining the appropriate response for policy violations by the reporter of the incident. Any possible negative consequences for the reporter of the problem should be evaluated against the possible negative consequences for the student who needed intervention. At a minimum, Central hopes that a student or student organization would make an anonymous report that would put the student in need in touch with professional helpers.

In the following examples, a student's physical and/or psychological well-being is in serious jeopardy.

Examples where the Good Samaritan Policy may influence educational sanctions are:

- A female student is reluctant to report that she has been sexually assaulted because she had been smoking marijuana just prior to the assault.
- A student is reluctant to call an ambulance when a friend becomes unconscious following excessive consumption of alcohol because the reporting student is under the age of 21 and was also consuming alcohol.
- A member of a student organization is reluctant to report a possible suicide attempt by a prospective member because prospective members have been required to perform activities that might be considered hazing.
