

BEGINNER AND ALTERNATE KEYBOARDS

Product	Platform(s)	Cost	Manufacturer/ Telephone	Product Description
Little Fingers	Macintosh Windows	$70	Datadesk 206-842-5480	This mini keyboard with built-in trackball is designed for small hands. It is dual platform (Mac & Win) compatible.
BigKeys	Macintosh Windows	$139 $119	Greystone Digital 800-249-5397	Has large 1" square keys in an alphabetical or QWERTY layout Keys are color coded for easy visual discrimination
Fun Touch	Windows	$30	SIIG 510-657-8688	Has letter and number keys in yellow and function and numeric keypad in red
KidBoard	Macintosh Windows	$99 $59	KidBoard 800-926-3066	Has color coded blue and red keys for teaching finger placement Keys feature an upper case letter label and matching picture cue
My First Keyboard	Windows	$60	Kidtech 800-681-4056	Has letters arranged in alphabetical order. Membrane keyboard
IntelliKeys	Macintosh Apple IIGs/IIE Windows	$395	IntelliTools 800-899-6687	Membrane keyboard Includes 7 overlays for letter and number input and mouse actions Custom make overlays or purchase overlays separately for use with popular educational software Has 2 programmable switch inputs
Discover:Board	Macintosh Windows	$499	Don Johnston 800-999-4660	Talking membrane keyboard Includes overlays for entering text or interacting with popular educational software Includes 500 image graphics library and design software for creating custom files/overlays
WinMini	Windows	$750	TASH 800-463-5685	Mini keyboard for users with good pointing ability but a limited range of motion
MacMini	Macintosh	$750	TASH 800-463-5685	Same as above
BAT keyboard	Macintosh Windows	$199	Infogrip	This "chording" keyboard is designed for one-hand typists. There is also a two-hand model for $349.