Trier, Germany

Spring Break - March 18 - 29, 2010

Application Deadline - November 23, 2009

Program Description

Romans in Germania provides students with an opportunity to gain firsthand insights into life on the limes (German frontier), including education, family, politics, economy, religion, literature, and entertainment. Students will learn how the Roman world shaped Western civilization, and learn how the Roman world contributed to the thoughts, values, and way of life in 21st century United States.

Dr. Danis will be conducting several lectures prior to departure, as well as on-site in Trier. These will be supplemented with readings, group discussions, and excursions to surviving Roman sites. Program excursions include: the Imperial Residence and Roman baths, the Rheinisches Landesmuseum, the Moselle Valley, and a tour of Roman villas in the countryside.
