Japanese Theatre and Culture

Post Winter Quarter - March 18 - 29, 2010

Deadline - November 23, 2009

Program Description

The Japanese Theatre and Culture program offers students the opportunity to explore Japan's unique culture, and experience traditional Japanese theatre (Noh, Kyogen, Kabuki, and Bunraku). Under the supervision of Professor Bellah and Dr. Nelson, students will gain a greater understanding of how Japanese language, philosophy, religion, history, and theatre influence one another.

Throughout the winter quarter students will meet and study Japanese language and traditional theatre styles. During the week of spring break students will travel to Japan and attend Japanese theatre performances and visit cultural sites, such as: Yuzen-En Museum, Fushimi Inari-Taisha Shrine, Todai-ji Temple, Nijo Castle, Tsukiji Fish Market, and the Noh Mask Museum.
