Dear Prof. Rajendran,

We have conducted the 2016-17 readiness review of your institution's Safety & Health Management (Bachelor of Science) Program Preliminary Self-Study Report.

The ABET Readiness Review Committee recommends that your institution submit the 2016-17 Request for Evaluation (RFE) for the aforementioned program to be reviewed by ABET's Applied Science Accreditation Commission (ASAC).

Based on the review of the submitted Self-Study Report, it appears that the program has a good understanding of the review process and ABET Criteria. However, the Readiness Review Committee offers the following feedback with an eye toward encouraging your institution to further refine the Self-Study Report for the final submission due July 1, 2016.

The below items should be considered neither comprehensive nor conclusive. Addressing the listed items should not be presumed to guarantee a favorable decision in any subsequent formal accreditation review:

- Continuous Improvement (CI) – The assessment program appears to be well thought out. However, some outcomes appear to rely on a single narrowly focused assignment that may not necessarily be entirely representative of the outcome.
- Faculty – The submitted Self-Study Report indicates that the program is aware of their need for an additional faculty member to support the increased enrollment.

As there is no way to predict with absolute certainty the review team's findings and the commission's final decision, please be advised that this readiness review is not a guarantee of or an indication of the final accreditation result likely to be rendered by the appropriate commission.

Please inform us of your decision by January 28, 2016 regarding whether your institution would like to initiate the 2016-17 review process.

Please do not hesitate to contact me at 1 (410) 347-7736/jemmet@abet.org or my staff Sherri Hersh at shersh@abet.org if we can be of further assistance.

Sincerely,

Jane Emmet
