University Centers staff collaborate with Student Ambassadors to develop activities focusing on four different areas: diversity, community outreach, retention, and campus connections. University Centers is committed to finding ways to create an environment where students feel like they have that sense of belonging, as they are supported by our Centers.

How does your request support current CWU students?

Student Ambassadors play a significant role in student retention by showing support to students. One instance, a student may text a designated phone number that then offers support through directing and providing resources available to them. They interact with other students daily by doing outreach, tabling, and being the face of the Center as students come in for assistance.

What metrics or assessment do you have (or intend to have) to measure the success of your program?

Our programs are influenced by our Center's student leaders in collaboration, execution, and follow-up meetings regarding events. Various surveys have been given to assess the success of programming. We also utilize social media platforms: Facebook, Instagram, Tik Tok, and You Tube channel to gauge program participation and interest.
