

Athletic Compliance Committee
End of Year Report
2018-2019

Members:

Ethan Bergman, Lindsey Brown, Bob Carbaugh, Laura Dahlby Nicolai, Dennis Francois, Eric Galbraith, Jaden Hassell, Geri Hopkins, Marissa Howat, Gary Hyatt, Mary Jorgenson, Rachel Lorentson, Melissa Magnusson, Brian McGladrey, JoAnn Page, Bill Schafer, Staci Sleigh-Layman, Mal Stewman, Stuart Thompson, Dawn Varnum

Committee Support:

Kim Dawson

The Athletic Compliance committee met on the following dates:

October 26, 2018

November 19, 2018

February 1, 2019

March 4, 2019

April 12, 2019

Summary:

Discussion items this academic year included:

- Facilities upgrades to Tomlinson Stadium and the dedication of the Freedman-Remak Student-Athlete Academic Success Center were great successes this year.
- Priority registration for all students participating in extra-curricular activities
- Proposed NCAA Legislation for the 2019 Convention
- Missed Class Policy: one of Brian's masters students developed surveys as part of her thesis work that went to students and faculty to collect feedback on the proposed missed class policy. Feedback will be shared with the Faculty Senate Academic Affairs Committee Fall 2019 to see if it can move forward in the approval process.
- The committee discussed academic petitions and heard some appeals

Goals for the committee for the upcoming 2019-2020 academic year include:

- Getting an updated Missed Class Policy in place
- Mental Health
- Discussing issue trends

Ethan Bergman
Co-Chair

Laura Dahlby Nicolai
Co-Chair