Policy

- (1) This policy is required by title VI of the civil rights act of 1964, title IX of the educational amendments of 1972, section 504 of the rehabilitation act of 1973, the American with disabilities act of 1990 and amendments, chapter 49.60.030 RCW (freedom from discrimination--declaration of civil rights) and chapter 49.60.222 RCW (unfair practices with respect to real estate transactions, facilities, or services).
- (2) Central Washington University (CWU) does not discriminate against any student or applicant for admission for any educational program or activity on the basis of actual or perceived race, color, creed, religion, national origin, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity and gender expression, pregnancy or related conditions, age, marital status, genetic information, disability status as a protected veteran, or any other protected characteristics under applicable local, state, or federal law. For the purposes of this policy, CWU educational programs and activities include, but are not limited to, the following:
 - A. Recruitment policies and practices.
 - B. Student admissions and enrollment policies and practices.
 - C. Courses, programs, and activities sponsored by the university including, but not limited to, academic programs, student employment, counseling and guidance services, financial aid, recreational activities and intercollegiate athletics.

- D. Athletic opportunities for all students who participate in interscholastic, intercollegiate, club, or intramural activities.
- E. All university-owned and sponsored housing intended for students. The university may provide separate housing on the basis of sex, provided that, as a whole, it is comparable in both quantity and quality to that provided to students of the other sex.
- F. All auxiliary facilities which are supported by the university. Further, the university ensures that all institutional or institution-supported services, facilities, activities, and programs for students are available to all students
- G. Awarding of scholarships and other financial aid. Financial assistance includes both public and private scholarships, fellowships, student loans, traineeship stipends, and employment obtained by the institution for the student as part of an assistance program (e.g., teaching assistantships and work study programs.).
- H. Where the university donates, leases, or otherwise makes available university-owned facilities or land for student use or activities which are a part of its overall program, or where the university provides funds or other financial assistance to acquire or operate facilities for such activities.
- I. Students will not be referred to training facilities which discriminate in their policies or programs. This includes such programs as student teaching in schools, clinical training, internship experiences, cooperative education, etc.
