Policy

- (1) Career services are available to anyone who seeks professional career assistance. CWU alumni who have completed 45-quarter credits or more at CWU, and CWU students are afforded these services free of charge. CWU students are defined as those who are currently enrolled, part time or full time, or are currently taking one quarter (fall, winter, or spring) away from school. Fees for non-CWU students and non-CWU Alumni will be assessed. For a complete description of services and fees, please contact the Career Services Office.
