The award-winning SHEA-KIM DUO was formed in 2013 by the husband and wife team of violinist Brendan Shea and pianist Yerin Kim. Subsequently, they have competed internationally and toured the world, performing in Belgium, Italy, South Korea, Canada and the United States. The Shea-Kim Duo's awards include a Gold Medal from the Manhattan International Music Competition, the Ackerman Chamber Music Award, finalist at the Salieri-Zinetti International Chamber Music Competition, and the Boulder International Chamber Music Competition. The duo is managed by Parker Artist Management and has been praised by Strings Magazine as "music overall comes across as more than merely notes, more like real life", "...creates a rich and intimate atmosphere, as they navigate the thrills and spills" by the BBC Music Magazine, "lively, ebullient, and spikily accentuated performance" by the Calgary Herald. Their performances have been broadcast on Klara Continuo (Belgium), PBC (South Korea) and WUFT (USA). Actively involved in promoting chamber music to a broader community and audience, the Shea-Kim Duo regularly presents sensory-friendly concerts that provide high-quality chamber music for individuals and families in the autistic community. The Duo also regularly appears at several notable music festivals, including those of Anchorage, Annapolis and Harborfront, InterHarmony International Festival, Zephyr International Chamber Music Festival and are the founders and artistic directors of Chamber Music in the Bend.

Yerin Kim is the Director of Keyboard Studies at CWU music department and Brendan Shea is Concert Master of Boise Philharmonic and Artist-in-Residence at College of Idaho.
