Carmina Burana

Carl Orff
(1895-1982)

Cantiones profanae cantoribus et choris cantandae comitantibus instrumentis atque imaginibus magicis

Secular songs for singers and choruses to be sung together with instruments and magical images

Carmina Burana is a scenic cantata based on a collection of medieval poems discovered in a Bavarian monastery.

The cantata is divided into three main sections:

Springtime (Primo Vere) – Celebrates the rebirth of nature and the joys of love.

In the Tavern (In Taberna) – Depicts rowdy scenes of drinking, gambling, and debauchery.

The Court of Love (Cour d'amours) – Explores the pleasures and pains of romantic and erotic love.

The overarching theme of Carmina Burana is the capriciousness of Fortune, symbolized by the ever-turning Wheel of Fortune, affecting human destiny through love, luck, and fate. The music combines powerful rhythms, simple harmo-nies, and medieval texts in Latin, Middle High German, and Old French.

Central Washington University acknowledges the people who have been on this land since time immemorial. The Ellensburg campus is on lands ceded by the Pshwanapum and other bands and tribes of the Yakama Nation in the Treaty of 1855. The Yakama people remain committed stewards of this land, cherishing it and protecting it, as instructed by elders through generations. We are honored and grateful to be here today on their traditional lands, and give thanks to the legacy of the original people, their lives, and their descendants.
