

What is SOURCE?

The Symposium of University Research and Creative Expression is an annual CWU event that showcases all disciplines of research and creative activities.

SOURCE works to connect students with resources and funding to aid them in their research as well as provide students a forum to present their findings in a professional and juried environment.

Where to Start

- Attend pre-SOURCE events to learn more about project development.
- Work with your mentor to plan project development
 - All participants must have a CWU faculty/staff mentor.
- Evidence-based exploration of a question or hypothesis that is important to others in your field.
 - Get familiar with the methodology of your project field.
- Creative projects normally have different process than research projects.

Participating In SOURCE

Benefits

- Critical thinking
- Public speaking
- Enrich your resume
- Conference experience
- Networking experience
- Mentorship experience
- Self-confidence

What You Can Present

- Oral presentations
- Research posters
- Creative exhibitions/performances
- Group or individual projects
- Preliminary findings
- In-progress projects

Office of University
Student Research

Questions? Contact us!
SOURCE@cwu.edu

